Rights Leaders Hopeful After Meeting Wallace

Governor's Aid Against Racial Bias Requested

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace listened Tuesday to the grievances of Alabama civil rights leaders, raising cautious hopes for easing the state's bitter racial strife.

Wallace received a petition from the group which asked his leadership in opening racial communications. Neither he nor the civil rights leaders indicated what might result from the meeting which lasted an hour and 20 minutes.

Wallace presented each of the visitors an autographed picture of himself as they left the office.

Alabama's racial conflict continued to stir other parts of the nation. In Detroit, funeral services were held for a white housewife slain by night-riders on an Alabama highway last week.

A congressional committee voted unanimously to investigate the Ku Klux Klan, following the lead of President Johnson, who assailed the hooded order after the arrest of four Klansmen in the slaying last Thursday night of Viola Gregg Liuzzo of Detroit.

"Hopeful," Spokesman Says

The Montgomery meeting between Wallace and 15 civil rights leaders was the first such high-level biracial conference since a Negro voter drive started 10 weeks ago in Alabama, setting off sporadic violence that has killed three persons.

"We are hopeful," said the Rev. Joseph E. Lowery of Birmingham, a Negro, spokesman for the delegation. "It is too early to say whether it was a fruitful meeting."

Wallace had no statement. His press secretary, Bill Jones, told newsmen the governor "had a very friendly and frank discussion with the group. He received their petition and he reiterated the fact that his office is always open to Alabamians, regardless of race, creed, color of national origin."

The petition asked Wallace to help start biracial talks, remove the $1.50 yearly state poll tax and initiate appointment of Negroes to state jobs, including the highway patrol.

Funeral For Mrs. Liuzzo

Most of the group had sought a meeting with Wallace after a massive march to the statehouse Thursday. The governor had said he was willing, but the delegation arrived after he had gone for the day.

Several of the group are officers of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), which is headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. King, leader of the Alabama drive, attended the funeral for Mrs. Liuzzo in Detroit.

At the funeral for Mrs. Liuzzo, mother of five children, the Rev. James Sheehan of the Roman Catholic church said a priest told him Mrs. Liuzzo had a premonition of danger the night she was slain.

Before the service, King was handed a $25,000 check by Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa to aid the civil rights drive.

U.S. Dist. Atty. Lawrence G. Gubow attended the services as a representative of President Johnson.

At Selma, about 350 persons, most of them Negroes, held a brief memorial service for Mrs. Liuzzo and then traveled to the scene of the slaying for another service.

Blast Stirs Retaliation Speculation

Two Americans, 18 Vietnamese Killed With 175 Wounded

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Speculation increased Wednesday that the United States may strike directly at the Communist North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi in reprisal for the terrorist bombing of the U. S. Embassy. The toll from the Tuesday blast rose to 20 dead and 175 wounded.

South Vietnamese troops marched in front of the U. S. Information Agency center in a demonstration against the Communist Viet Cong. Light planes swept over Saigon dropping leaflets advertising the demonstration.

During the night two more Vietnamese died of wounds. That made the toll 20 Americans and 18 Vietnamese killed and 45 Americans and 130 Vietnamese wounded.

Security Tightened

Officials tightened security generally around Saigon in anticipation of possible new terrorism during the anti-Red rally. Embassy employees picked their way through the debris, trying to return to their workaday routine.

Red China gloated over the embassy attack, calling the terrorism "heartening news to the revolutionary people throughout the world while the big and small chieftains in Washington are panic-stricken."

Seemingly anticipating new retaliatory attacks on the north, Peking's official People's Daily said the United States "cannot escape fiasco no matter how many bombs it may dump."

The Peking Communist party newspaper called the embassy blast a "victory for the South Vietnamese people" and "a warning to the U. S. aggressors that no place in Viet Nam is safe." It added, "if American aggressors intend to remain in South Viet there will be no place for them to hide even if they die."

Embassy Secretary Killed

One of the American dead was an embassy secretary, Barbara A. Robbins, 21, of Denver, Colo.

The other victim was a U. S. Navy petty officer, whose identity was withheld until his family is notified.

Deputy Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson, himself slashed by flying flames, bitterly condemned this "example of the Viet Cong's readiness to resort to atrocities against civilians."

A 39-plane task force staged the 14th raid Tuesday, but it was a previously planned operation to knock out a military air base near Dong Hoi, 260 miles south of Hanoi. Pilots said the targets were 90 per cent destroyed.

Tuesday's embassy explosion was set off in a sedan that a

Humphrey Appeals To Big City Mayors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey asked about 100 mayors Tuesday to bring their influence to bear on the problem of job discrimination against Negroes.

Humphrey, after meeting for nearly three hours with the mayors in a closed session, said the Johnson administration had requested that cities put a non-discrimination clause in their contracts similar to that used by the federal government.

Major Earthquake Relief Program Begins In Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — A major relief and reconstruction program was launched today in central Chile, ravaged by an earthquake that may have taken as many as 425 lives.

Hardest hit was El Cobre, a mining village 80 miles north of Santiago, where an earthen dam collapsed, burying perhaps as many as 400 persons under mud and debris.

Rescue workers pulled 45 bodies from the mud at El Cobre. Most of the rest probably will remain buried under tons of rock and mud.

The Interior Ministry said 25 persons were killed elsewhere in Sunday's quake.

The number of injured and homeless ran into the thousands. Damage was in the mil-

Million Cheer As Astronauts 'Orbit' Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Gemini astronauts Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young, America's first space twins, were welcomed as heroes Tuesday by more than a million cheering spectators who jammed downtown Chicago.

Both astronauts called attention to the contributions made to the nation's space program by thousands of scientists, engineers, technicians and other workers, and Young used the occasion to say:

"I think the Molly Brown made this country look good around the planet. And, as the saying goes — boy — they ain't seen nuthin' yet."

Young drew a burst of applause with this remark at a special meeting of the City Council where he and Grissom were made honorary citizens of Chicago and presented with medals.

Both astronauts were alert and buoyant throughout the second consecutive day of nerve-taxing ceremonies reserved for the nation's great.

They were soaked by rain and bathed in adulation of admirers during a busy 14-hour day in New York Monday which was capped by a triumphal tour of the city.

In Chicago they smiled and waved to thousands of cheering, flag-waving well-wishers during a 10-mile motor trip from O'Hare International Airport to the city and a parade through the downtown area.

Just one week ago they soared through three orbits in the world's first maneuverable spaceship — nicknamed the Molly Brown — to bring the U. S. one step closer to its goal of placing a man on the moon in this decade.

Fugitive For 44 Years Sentenced

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — "I believe justice was done," Leroy Dunlap said Tuesday after a three-judge panel sentenced him to prison for a slaying for which he spent 44 years as a fugitive eluding the electric chair.

Dunlap, 64, showed no emotion as he was sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the Ohio penitentiary for the 1920 robbery-slaying of waiter Steve Bossos.

A white-haired grandfather, he will be eligible for parole in 11 months. The judges denied a probation request. Dunlap had pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of first-degree manslaughter.

"I'm glad it's all over," said Dunlap, who was convicted of first degree murder in 1920 a few days after he broke out of the Summit County jail. "I believe justice was done. At my age it doesn't make a lot of difference."

Fulbright Move To Split Foreign Aid Bill Loses

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee rejected Tuesday a move by its chairman, Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., to split the $3.38-billion foreign aid package into separate economic and military bills.

Fulbright reported that the committee voted 9 to 4 to override him. He said a bipartisan majority felt the committee might lose jurisdiction over military assistance by putting it in a separate bill.

The committee approved tentatively several sections of the one-package measure, Fulbright said, and he hopes work can be completed on it this week.

Fulbright has refused to manage the aid program for the administration as a single package. Instead, he introduced earlier this month only the $2.2-billion economic portion, leaving it to someone else to introduce the $1.18-billion military part.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., introduced the administration single-bill approach, but said he will oppose it on the Senate floor.

Fulbright said he hopes the measure will be managed on the floor by Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama, the second ranking Democrat on the committee.

Fulbright conceded from the start that he was fighting an uphill battle to revamp the aid program. But he said he hoped a start could be made this year by splitting the authorization measure into two bills and putting substantially more of the development lending under multination management.

7,500 Miles In Space

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The United States successfully shot an instrument package 7,500 miles into the heavens Tuesday from this strike-plagued space port.

The 46½-pound package, designed to measure the variations in radiation trapped in earth's magnetic field, rode aloft atop a four-stage Blue Scout Jr. rocket.

'Wanton Act' Strengthens U.S. Resolve

President To Ask Authority, Funds For New Building

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson declared Tuesday that the terrorist bombing of the U. S. Embassy in Saigon — "a wanton act of ruthlessness" — only reinforced American determination to continue and strengthen assistance to South Viet Nam.

He also announced that he would immediately ask Congress for funds to build a new embassy office building to replace the bomb-shattered structure in Saigon.

"This will be one more symbol of our solidarity with the people of Viet Nam," the President said. "It is they who are the real targets of the Communist aggressor."

His statement, issued at 4:30 p.m. after a day of consultations with his top advisers, came as administration officials cautioned against speculation that the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi might be raided in retaliation for the bombing.

Avoid Extreme Reaction

There appeared an inclination at the highest levels of government to avoid any extreme reaction to the bloody and tragic event, so symbolic of the long and dirty Vietnamese war.

Johnson, in his statement, noted only that "outrages like this will only reinforce the determination of the American people and government to continue and to strengthen their assistance and support for the people and the government of Viet Nam."

At the outset of his statement, Johnson said: "The terrorist outrage aimed at the American embassy in Saigon shows once again what the struggle in Viet Nam is about. This wanton act of ruthlessness has brought death and serious injuries to innocent Vietnamese citizens in the street as well as to American and Vietnamese personnel on duty. I extend my deepest sympathy to the families of all who lost their lives."

Secretary Identified

The State Department earlier had identified one of the two victims as Barbara A. Robbins, a 21-year-old foreign service secretary who had been in Saigon since last August. She was a secretary in the political section of the embassy.

The other dead person was a Navy man, who had not been identified publicly.

Johnson, in his statement, noted with satisfaction that "the embassy is already back in business." He said, "I shall at once request the Congress for authority and funds for the immediate construction of a new chancery for the American Embassy in Saigon."

Johnson paid tribute to the personnel in the embassy, including Deputy Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson who was slightly hurt in the bombing. "Led by Ambassador Johnson, the Americans in Viet Nam have once again shown outstanding qualities of courage and coolness," he said. "They have the admiration of their countrymen."

Full-Scale Klan Probe Signaled By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — A full-scale investigation of the Ku Klux Klan was voted unanimously Tuesday by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The action was taken in closed session after federal officials indicated that Klansmen have been involved in what a committee spokesman called "a number of recent murders and other unconstitutional acts of violence and terrorism."

Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., said the committee acted "as soon as possible" after President Johnson denounced the Klan in a nationwide broadcast last Friday as a "hooded society of bigots" and suggested a congressional probe.

Willis described the investigation as a big job and said "it may be several weeks, perhaps a couple of months" before formal hearings can begin.

"It will take time and effort, and a lot of hard digging to develop facts needed for hearings on which sound legislation can be enacted," he said.

Willis announced also that the committee instructed him to carry on with a preliminary inquiry into activities of the Black Muslims, the American Nazi party and the Minutemen.

Speaking on the House floor, Rep. James Martin, R-Ala., said the committee should expand its investigations to include Negro civil rights groups. He mentioned specifically the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, the Congress of Racial Equality, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and the Southern Conference Education Fund.

N.Y. Papers Face Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner skipped a White House dinner to fly home from Washington Tuesday as New York City's newspaper industry teetered on the brink of a costly new strike.

He summoned negotiators to City Hall for last ditch peace talks.

A guarded note of optimism came from Bertram A. Powers, whose newspaper printers are spearheading a drive for more money and tighter job protection.

"Today we discussed 25 open sections (of the proposed new contract) and came to agreement on a number of them," Powers said. "It was the first real progress in five months of negotiating."

Printers Local 6, AFL-CIO International Typographical Union, has set a strike deadline of 2 a.m. Wednesday — the second anniversary of the end of the 114-day New York newspaper strike that cost the city's economy an estimated $250 million.

Powers indicated Local 6 might extend the strike deadline, depending "on what progress is made and what issues remain."

Laotian Army Quells Mutiny

SAVANNAKHET, Laos (UPI) — Loyalist Laotian army forces Tuesday put down a rebellion by a triumvirate of colonels in the town of Thakhek without firing a shot, according to reports received here.

The reports said many of the estimated 500 rebel troops holed up at Thakhek, 60 miles north of here, surrendered and others fled north to join another rebel unit at Pakxane as loyal forces marched into the town.

Whereabouts of the young army colonels whose discontent with reassignment orders touched off the mutiny was not known immediately.

They were believed to have either gone north to Pakxane or fled across the Mekong River into neighboring Thailand. The rebel leaders included Col. Si-peraseth Saycoie and Kham-say Sayrathpue.

Siperaseth is a cousin of Col. Coumleut Saycoie, who led the abortive Feb. 3 rebellion which sent Vice Premier Phoumi Nosavan into exile in Thailand.

"War On Poverty" Runs Into Politics

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's proclaimed "war on poverty" has become entangled in local political thickets in some states and promises to kick up a fuss in Congress.

Already four bipartisan two-man investigating teams from the House Education and Labor Committee are studying administration of the program in a number of states. The investigation is just getting under way.

Judge Upholds Ward's Firing

BALTIMORE (AP)—Judge James K. Cullen upheld Monday the firing of Dr. Charles S. Ward as superintendent of the Baltimore State Hospital.

Judge Cullen said Dr. Ward had been given adequate notice and ample hearings on the reasons for his dismissal. Furthermore, the Superior Court judge said, Ward's dismissal was "fully justified."

British Expect U.S. Retaliation

LONDON (AP)—The British expect the United States to retaliate for the terror bombing of its embassy in Saigon, possibly by a massive air raid on the Communist North Vietnamese capital, Hanoi.

Foreign Office experts sought Tuesday to assess the implications of what seemed to them the biggest and most spectacular Viet Cong operation of the war in South Viet Nam.

Authorities said they also foresee a hard blow to British hopes of arranging talks to end the war.

Former Foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker is preparing to fly to the area to investigate prospects of a political solution. His plan is to enter Peking and Hanoi if Red Chinese and North Vietnamese leaders allow him.

The Viet Cong bombing well may turn out to be only the prelude to a wider and more intensive campaign of terror against the civil population of South Viet Nam, officials said.

terrorist parked and abandoned in front of the five-story embassy building.

About 150 embassy workers and visitors were in the embassy. Dozens of other persons were strolling outside along the wide, tree-shaded Ham Nghi Avenue, just before 11 a.m. Tuesday.

Forty-five or more Americans and at least 104 Vietnamese and non-American foreigners were injured by the explosion and the rain of broken glass and other debris from the building.

The Vietnamese dead included the car driver, felled as he fled riding double on a motorcycle with a fellow terrorist, and several Vietnamese policemen on guard duty at the embassy.

The second terrorist, who packed a pistol, was shot from the motorcycle and captured, seriously injured.

Representation Suit Dismissed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal district judge dismissed Tuesday a suit seeking a reduction of congressional representation in states which deny Negroes the right to vote.

A spokesman for the legal defense and educational fund of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in New York, said:

"Our intention is to appeal immediately. Events in Selma (Ala.) underscore the gross injustice of permitting states to bar Negroes from the polls while counting them for purposes of inflating the size of their congressional delegation."

District Judge William B. Jones, who heard the suit two months ago, granted a government motion for dismissal on grounds that the plaintiffs, 22 citizens of both Northern and Southern states, had no standing before the court to file such a suit.

Dixie Accepts Guard Order

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Most Southern states reacted Tuesday with routine acceptance of new, tough nondiscrimination rules published by the National Guard Bureau.

Officials said the new regulations do not affect their states because they already have dropped racial discrimination.

The regulations allow withholding of federal funds from any state which refuses to comply. Federal funds make up 90 per cent of the National Guard budgets.

Southern units have only a small percentage of Negroes in the ranks but this results in large part from a lack of Negro applicants, military officials said.

"Our ranks are open to anyone who qualifies and volunteers," said Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Bishop, Texas adjutant. "I think that word 'volunteers' describes a lot of the situation. We can't force anyone into the Guard. They have to volunteer."

The same response came from Georgia's adjutant, Maj. Gen. George J. Hearn. He said the Georgia Guard integrated voluntarily about three years ago without pressure from any source.

Maryland Job Bill Enacted, Accommodations Measure Killed

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — A fair employment bill was enacted by the Maryland Legislature Tuesday, but a bill to expand the state's public accommodations law was killed on the motion of a Baltimore Negro senator.

The employment bill was enacted with House concurrence on technical amendments made by the Senate. The vote was 99-11.

The measure prohibits racial or religious discrimination by employers of 100 or more persons effective July 1. A year later it will affect those hiring 75 or more, and so on until the number drops to 25 or more over a four-year period.

Pistol Sales Measure Dead

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—A Senate committee killed Tuesday House passed legislation which would have provided a degree of regulation for pistol sales in Maryland.

The vote in the Judicial Proceedings Committee was by voice vote but was overwhelming.

The bill, amended heavily in the House, would have required gun dealers to register with State Police.

They would have been required to obtain a detailed application from the pistol purchaser, but not his fingerprints, and forward this information to State Police.

Police would have had five days in which to check the application to determine whether the applicant had any criminal background before the gun was sold.

Archimedes, Newton and Carl Friedrich Gauss are ranked as the three great mathematicians of all time.

Like the public accommodations bill, the employment bill was designed to bring state law into conformity with federal civil rights legislation. Backers said it would leave administration of such laws in the hands of Maryland authorities instead of under federal jurisdiction.

But the accommodations bill died in the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee.

"I move an unfavorable report," said Mrs. Verda F. Welcome, D-Balto 4th, in the midst of a discussion of the bill.

"Frankly, it's been amended so much, I don't think it's worthwhile. It doesn't mean anything. There is a lot of vindictiveness in the bill and it may cause more resentment."

The committee quickly adopted an unfavorable vote by voice vote.

As introduced originally, the bill was intended to broaden the state law to comply with the federal act prohibiting racial discrimination in public places.

Before passing it, the House spelled out that private clubs and taverns among other establishments would continue to be exempt.

It also added an amendment prohibiting member and employees of the Maryland Interracial Commission from promoting or participating in racial demonstrations.

Sen. Frederick C. Malkus Jr., D-Dorchester, the committee chairman, said he was going to offer an push a further amendment that commission officials shall not advise, suggest, or promote any course of conduct which is illegal.

It was at this point that Sen. Welcome made her unfavorable motion.

"This shocks me," Sen. J. Joseph Curran Jr., D-Balto 3rd, told Mrs. Welcome.

She then explained that the House amendments had ruined the intent of the bill which had been prepared by the interracial commission.

The state law now applies only to hotels and restaurants.

The House amendments would have extended it to all places which principally sell food, gas stations, theaters, sports arenas and any other service offered in an establishment otherwise covered by the law.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You seem to know all the answers, so perhaps you can tell me why in heaven's name a guest would be interested in what other folks have in their medicine cabinets.

Last Saturday afternoon I entertained my bridge club. One of the women took me aside just as I was about to serve the refreshments. She said, "I'm so sorry but I broke a bottle of your mouthwash. It fell out of the medicine cabinet. I hope I got all the glass up."

You know very well, Ann Landers, that bottles don't just "fall out" of medicine cabinets. She opened the cabinet door to see what was in there.

Will you explain why the contents of a medicine cabinet would be of interest to anybody? —BAFFLED

DEAR BAFF: If I could answer your question I would also be able to tell you why all winter the kids leave open the doors they slammed all summer. And why adults prefer the front of the bus, the back of the church and the middle of the highway. The lady might have been looking for an aspirin, but I suspect she was really checking to see if you kept a neat medicine cabinet or if your family takes a lot of medicine — and if so, what kinds.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My aunt who lives in Europe is visiting me. She started reading your column two weeks ago. Today she handed me your column and said, "Isn't it disgusting?" She was referring to a letter about a 16-year-old girl who had gotten pregnant and didn't know who the father was. My aunt asked me why American newspapers print such trash. She said, "Yesterday Ann Landers published a letter from a mother of five children whose husband was making eyes at the baby sitter. This makes America look like a country overrun with sex maniacs, juvenile delinquents and gutter-types."

I do believe you are giving overseas visitors a sorry picture and it might improve our image abroad if you would not print problems of a trashy nature. Thank you.—PROUD OF OUR COUNTRY

DEAR PROUD: The purpose of this column is to help people. It is not a showcase for visitors. Life would be lovely if there were no unwed mothers, juvenile delinquents, or unfaithful husbands and wives, but these problems exist and they must be dealt with. Moreover they are not problems unique to America, they are human problems.

This column appears in Australia, South Africa, Canada, Pakistan, Mexico, Japan as well as in Europe. You didn't say what country your aunt came from but the letter that shocked her may have been written by a young girl from her home town.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: We hired a carpenter to add a room to our home. He had a helper who was drunk most of the time.

After three months of fooling around and producing fifth-rate work my husband threw the carpenter and his half-stiff helper out. Unfortunately we had paid in advance because the carpenter said he needed the money to buy the materials.

My husband is so mad at having been taken in that he has been telephoning the carpenter at his home at all hours of the night. He curses and screams at anyone who answers the phone. (Usually it is the man's wife.)

I keep telling him he's behaving like a child, but his attitude is, "The whole family is going to suffer for this." What can I do?—A WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Your husband has let this thing get him. He needs professional help.

Do you feel ill at ease . . . out of it? Is everybody having a good time but you? Write for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "The Key to Popularity," enclosing with your request 35c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Make-Up, Hairstyle Tips For Pear-Shaped Face

Beauty is only captured by those who know how to set the trap for her. She even escapes from the "born beautiful" unless they keep their bait tempting.

What works for one won't work for another, either. You have to find your own special formula. Copying the beauty ways of your favorite movie star or some other famed femme can be disastrous—unless you and she are twin types.

Let's say your favorite star has a wide forehead and pointed chin, while your face is more pear-shaped than triangular. Every style you borrow from her in hair style or make-up methods will only serve to accentuate your strong jaw and narrow forehead! The very features you wish to minimize!

The pear-shaped face has its own beauty rules, and only by faithful adherence can the oval illusion of beauty be attained. Here are those rules:

Hair arrangement: To balance the width of your chin and widen your brow, dress your hair with

Father Burns Plays Music At Mass For New Cardinal

Rev. James M. Burns, SS, a native of Cumberland, was in charge of the music for the Solemn Pontifical Mass Sunday offered by Lawrence Cardinal Shehan in thanksgiving for his elevation to the Sacred College in the Fifth Regiment Armory in Baltimore.

Father Burns, a graduate of LaSalle High School, is stationed at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore.

Applications Filed For Children's Program

Applications have been made by two Allegany County agencies for participation in "Operation Head-Start," which is designed to help pre-school children from pockets of poverty.

Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, sent letters to Commissioner Robert Little Ebert of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners and to Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools.

After a survey of the situation in regard to four- and five-year-old children who can be considered as deprived children the school and county officials listed about 90 children from a number of areas in the county as being in the category.

The nation-wide pre-school program which is part of the War on Poverty would be conducted two months this summer.

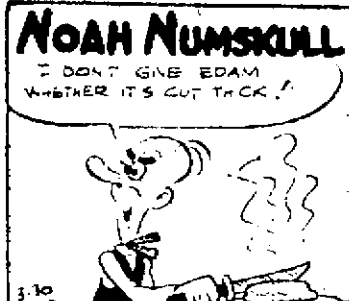

The program is designed to improve the health and physical and dental examinations.

For many, the introduction of scissors, crayons and colored pictures — standard equipment in most homes — will be a rare and novel experience.

The planning committee of the federal program reported that "there is considerable evidence that the early years of childhood are the most critical in the poverty cycle."

"During these years, development occurs at a very rapid rate. For the children of poverty, there are obvious deficiencies in these processes, deficiencies which lay the foundation for a pattern of failure — and thus a pattern of poverty — throughout his life."

Bay Bridge Legislation Dies In Committee

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Legislation authorizing a second Chesapeake Bay Bridge, a second Baltimore Harbor Tunnel and planning of other bay crossing died Tuesday in the Senate Finance Committee.

The committee voted 10-3 against an administration effort to revive authority for construction of a bay bridge alongside the present span between Sandy Point and Kent Island.

The committee then killed by voice vote a bill which the House had passed to authorize a second bridge across the lower Chesapeake Bay and a second harbor tunnel.

Committee members said they would prefer to see no legislation until the State Roads Commission is able to come up with definite priorities and a timetable for construction of crossings that it thinks will be necessary.

Sen. Robert P. Dean, D-Queen Annes, made the move to substitute the parallel span as a priority item for construction. The House had stricken the parallel bridge from the bill.

Only two other Eastern Shore senators near the present bridge voted with Dean—Percy M. Hepbron of Kent County and John Clarence North of Talbot.

Chairman Harry R. Hughes, D-Caroline, did not vote in keeping with a custom of only breaking ties.

Several of those voting opposed to any legislation complained that in either its amended or previous form, the bill authorized construction of both a bay bridge and a harbor tunnel, and that State Roads officials testified this was financially impossible for the state to do simultaneously.

The roads officials said that if given the legislation, they would build the parallel bridge first. But they did not indicate when a second tunnel would be built.

Fishermen Rescued

YOKOHAMA, Japan (UPI)—Fifteen Japanese fishermen adrift in a life boat near South Torishima Island were rescued Tuesday after their 84-ton vessel sank, the maritime safety agency office said.

About two-thirds of the countries over the globe have populations less than metropolitan New York's 11 million, according to the Population Reference Bureau, Inc.

Association Has No Plans For Cloud Seeding

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP)—The former president of a four-state association of fruit growers said Tuesday the organization has made no plans for cloud seeding this year or next.

Fred Glaize Jr. of Winchester, former president of the Blue Ridge Weather Modification Association, said a report Monday that the group had contracted with W. E. Howell Associates Inc. of Bedford, Mass., for cloud seeding in 1966 was incorrect.

Glaize said a public relations firm for Howell made the announcement through what Howell termed a misunderstanding.

"The association is inactive," said Glaize. "There are no plans for this season or next."

The Blue Ridge group is made up of orchardists in West Virginia, Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Vicar Appointed

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Luigi Cardinal Traglia was appointed Tuesday by Pope Paul VI as vicar for the city of Rome, replacing the late Clemente Cardinal Micara.

A man who weighs 200 pounds at the North or South Pole is one pound less at the equator. This happens because the earth bulges at the Equator and centrifugal force is greater there. Gravity, thus is slightly decreased.

Braces Aid County Children

Proper types and fitting of braces are an important part of the recovery for patients of the Allegheny County League for Crippled Children.

Braces come in many sizes and have many names — depending of the ailment which they are destined to help cure.

Periodically, the league holds brace clinics and Robert Denison, a professional brace maker from Baltimore, sees the young patients, measures them for braces or checks those which have already been in use on others.

Then between visits, Miss Margaret Poole, physical therapist who is with the League through the cooperation of the State Department of Health, Services for Crippled Children, sees that they are adjusted properly.

One of the patients seen by Mr. Denison at the recent brace clinic at league headquarters is James Michael Sites, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Sites, 321 Arch Street. Young James is a spastic paraplegia (cerebral palsy) and has been a patient at the League since October of last year.

As a small child, his parents noticed he was dragging his toes and he was first seen here by Dr. Winthrop Phelps, one of the doctors from Children's Hospital, Baltimore, who attend orthopedic, cerebral palsy and plastic surgery clinics here.

It was recommended that James wear a bar brace at night and a cable twister (to keep his steps straight) in the daytime. The outlook is that the young patient will not have the handicap later if use of the braces is continued. He is seen twice a year at local clinics, the last time by Dr. Thomas Hunt, when he was in charge of the clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Sites have two other children, William, 8, and Blake, 3.

The brace clinic is another of the services of the League being offered to 1,695 children in the area. The league, supported solely by voluntary donations, is currently conducting its Easter Seal Sale campaign which ends Easter Sunday.

George A. Schwarzenbach, Seal Sale chairman, said returns to mail appeals have been encouraging but he urged those who have not done so to return their donations as soon as possible.

"What better time than the Easter Season is there to help a crippled or handicapped child?" Mr. Schwarzenbach said.

He also appealed to those who had not received Seals to support the league.

Donations should be sent to Allegheny County League for Crippled Children, City Hall Plaza, Cumberland.

The league is an independent agency.

County Plans To Increase Tax Relief For Elderly

The Allegheny County Board of Commissioners has been requested by a special committee of the Senior Citizens Retirement Social Club to raise the maximum allowance in order to allow more property owners over age 65 to qualify.

Commissioner Robert Little Ebert, who has been working on this proposal for some time, announced that the county commissioners are planning to raise the maximum income allowance for next year.

The present income allowance is at a maximum of $1,200 with the over 65 years of age property owner being given a tax credit on the first $3,500 of his property assessment.

Commissioner Ebert explained that applications for these tax credits must be received 21 days before the end of the calendar year to qualify for the tax credit on the tax bills issued later in the spring.

The request for the raising of the maximum income came too late to make any change for the present tax year. Action will be taken next fall in plenty of time to allow applications to be made before the prescribed deadline of December 10.

Barber Training Bill Is Enacted

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — The House enacted Tuesday a bill which would require more schooling or apprenticeship for Maryland barbers.

Eight of the 23 counties, including Prince Georges — home county of the sponsor, Democratic Del. Dennis H. Marshall — are exempt from the measure.

Described at its introduction as a bill to revise the law on regulation of the barbering business, the bill would require applicants for barbers' licenses to have completed 1,200 hours of study in a licensed barber school or the same amount of instruction "combining theory and practical subjects" under a licensed master barber. Present law requires 900 hours.

It also would outlaw mobile barber shops and would require barber shops to be separated from any other business by a permanent partition or wall.

Deleted from the title of the bill was a prohibition against the posting of price signs in barber shops.

Also deleted was a provision to require inspection of new shops or those changing ownership and the charging of a $25 fee for each inspection.

The bill was among 17 signed by the governor and House and Senate leaders.

As a civic project, Gold Star Post 6452, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has notified Mayor Charles H. Fryer of Ridgeley that the veterans organization will provide a 40-foot steel flagpole which will be placed in front of the city building.

The mayor said last night that the pole will be erected at a later date and the police department headed by Chief Fred Robertson will be in charge of raising and lowering the flag each day.

In other VFW activities, the post will hold a regular meeting on Friday at 8 p.m. at the Ridgeley fire hall. The nomination of officers will be held Sunday at the Ridgeley fire hall.

This past Saturday the post sponsored a bicycle inspection program in conjunction with the fire company and police department.

Ronnie McFadden and J. H. Adams of the VFW headed two teams which inspected some 47 bicycles. The VFW provided helmets and material which was attached to the rear fender of each bike as an added safety factor.

The bicycles were checked for proper working brakes, a headlight and a warning bell or horn.

The police department is urging youngsters to be careful on their bikes and observe regulations pertaining to pedaling in traffic.

Vernon Scott's Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Maurice Evans, as distinguished a Shakespearean as can be found in the American theater, is not above appearing in a hokey television show now and then.

Last fall he popped up in a segment of "Bewitched" playing a delightfully disdainful warlock or rogue. At the moment he is portraying a maitre d' in a Deauville gambling casino for a "Bob Hope Theater."

By way of explanation, Evans said: "I have to do this show for Bob because the last time we worked together I was the employer."

"It was during World War II and I was in charge of troop entertainment in the central Pacific. I was a major in the United States Army and Bob was more or less under my command. I supplied Bob with free liquor in those days when it was hard to get. So far he hasn't reciprocated."

One expects Shakespearean actors to speak in stentorian intonations. Most do. But Evans is a delightful exception.

A Welshman turned American citizen, Evans is a man of charm and dignity; not the least impressed with himself. He is, in fact, trying to live down his reputation as a Shakespearean.

"It's a curse," he explained. "Agents only send for me when there's a reference to Shakespeare in the script, no matter how minuscule."

"One of the reasons I accepted this script from NBC was because there isn't a hint of Shakespeare in it. On the other hand, I would like to do more pure Shakespeare in the theater but there is no market for full-dress Shakespeare."

"It costs as much as a big musical and it doesn't play to the same type of audience that is willing to pay $9 a seat for a musical. People who enjoy Shakespeare are often those who can't afford those prices."

Evans' last bout with the Bard was with Helen Hayes in a "two-man" tour of 39 cities almost two years ago. They traveled by bus for 19 weeks playing colleges and small towns.

Of this experience Evans said "Any generation brought up without Shakespeare is so much the poorer."

Evans helped establish the classic theater on Broadway back in 1935 and electrified theatergoers with his performance in "Richard III" in 1938, followed by "Hamlet" and "Macbeth."

"Then the war came along and I had a difficult decision to make," Evans said. "I had to decide whether to return to England or to join the American Army and become an American citizen. I chose the latter; this is the land of my choice."

Neither Ireland nor New Zealand have snakes.

Christie Road Repairs Asked

Robert L. Horstman, who resides near the intersection of Christie Road and Country Club Road, wrote the Allegany County Board of Commissioners he is in favor of the proposed modernization of Christie Road.

Mr. Horstman said there are a number of rumors being circulated in the neighborhood about the road programs and he thinks it would be well to have a public meeting to outline the facts in the case.

Albert S. Paye, county engineer, said survey crews are currently working in the area under a contract with a firm of consulting engineers. No firm decision has been made as to the routes and will not be until the surveys have been completed and all the data and facts analyzed.

The commissioners also instructed James G. Stevenson, clerk, to notify the State Roads Commission that the county will not participate in the SRC construction loan fund program this year.

Frostburg School Plan Explained By Webster

Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of schools, yesterday sent a copy of a letter to a Frostburg man, who raised some question concerning the new elementary school proposed for that community, to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.

Ralph M. Blankfield, 1 Park Avenue, wrote Mr. Webster he was concerned over the planning of the school. He was told that his concern was the result of inadequate information in the matter. The floor plan merely outlined the building and is not intended to show details of working drawings, Mr. Webster stated.

As far as the concern expressed by Mr. Blankfield over expanding the residential section of Frostburg is not borne out by enrollment of the past 10 years and the foreseeable future, Mr. Webster stated. Mr. Webster said the enrollment at Beall elementary in the last 10 years has increased nine pupils — from 446 to 455.

Mr. Webster said the concern over the physical fitness program at the school is shared by all and that an oversize room is planned so that groups of pupils can take physical education during inclement weather. There is an outdoor paved area provided in the

LaSalle Test To Be Given This Saturday

The required entrance examination for freshmen entering LaSalle High School next fall will be given Saturday, according to Brother F. Luke, F.S.C., principal.

Brother Luke said the eighth graders should report to the school at 8:45 a. m., and the exam will begin at 9 a. m.

Brother Luke also announced that the holders of the two highest scores will be awarded four-year scholarships to the school.

The student acceptance will be based on creditable performances in the test.

Eight grade parochial school boys throughout the area will take the exam. Brother Luke expects about 100 to take the test.

PTA Lists Membership Event Winners

East Side PTA met recently at the school with Charles Waltman, physical education resource teacher, in charge of a demonstration and program, entitled "Look, Mom, Muscles."

Sixth graders participated in various athletic activities to illustrate the program.

Winners of the membership campaign were announced. They are Miss Betty Morgan, first; Miss Orpha Clark, second; Mrs. Helen Marts, third. Attendance awards at the meeting went to Miss Morgan and Miss Clark.

John Duckworth, Mrs. Velma Hankinson and Mrs. Mary Dudley were appointed a Nominating Committee.

Mrs. Arthur Howard, who was appointed to make a study of a walk bridge for children in connection with the Cumberland Turnway project, asked the PTA to go on record expressing concern for the safety of children.

The PTA decided to contact John D. Bushby, State Roads Commission district engineer, about its concern.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Robert Shipley, president, that the next County Council meeting would be held at East Side May 10. Miss Agnes Lauder.

A Big Headache For Free World

A difference of opinion is not always a good thing. Especially when it is a direct result of one man's strong-willed determination to be ornery for ego's sake.

In the case of France's President De Gaulle, his consistent attempts to downgrade American and British policies of the moment are no longer merely as tedious as a broken record. They are dangerous.

President De Gaulle does not do the cause of peace for the whole world, including France, one speck of good by consistently rapping everything American and almost everything British. A critic-for-criticism's sake is a carper, a needler, a nagger, and eventually a boring but dangerous trouble maker.

That is exactly what De Gaulle has turned out to be. His is a paranoid compulsion. He sees the Stars and Stripes or the Union Jack and he reacts like a Gallic bull with a phobia for flags.

The French leader's most recent anti-American orbits have taken his country to selling U. S. dollars for gold, and to promising not to come to the aid of his World War I and II allies if war should rise out of the Far East confrontation of the world of freedom and the world of Communism.

What all this means is that the Anglo-American alliance faces its gravest days since the iron curtain first descended over Europe. It must resist all efforts to split it, take strong steps to retain its influence in Western Europe, and keep its eyes on Viet Nam and Malaysia.

Make no mistake about it, a giant split in the West could be just the cure for what ails the Russians and Chinese.

These Days

By John Chamberlain

A Soviet Farm Miracle

The Soviets are moving heaven and earth to get their farm situation straightened out, which lends point to the supposition that the tenure of Brezhnev and Kossygin in the Kremlin will depend on the next Russian harvest.

Can this harvest possibly be rich enough to sustain the current Soviet leadership through some ticklish days? In calling a plenary meeting of the 330-member Central Committee of the Communist Party, Brezhnev announced that the big topic for discussion would be "efforts designed to improve radically the situation in our agriculture." The key to the importance of this announcement is the use of the word "radically." It indicates that nothing has been going right with Russian farming for a long time.

The big flop of recent years will, of course, be blamed on Khrushchev. It was Khrushchev's long love affair with American corn that had changed the Ukraine, once famous for its wheat surplus, into a crop deficient area. In 1953 only five per cent of the Ukraine's arable soil had been devoted to American corn. Khrushchev, after his trip to Iowa, jumped this up to some 22 per cent. But what was right for Farmer Garst, Khrushchev's friend in Iowa, proved wrong for the Ukraine, and it was even more disastrous for the "virgin lands" of Kazakhstan. Corn requires far more labor than wheat, and it needs corn-cultivating machinery that the Soviets did not have. Moreover, it needs a long growing season, and this cannot be had in Russia when the frosts come early.

The presence of unharvested corn in the fields last autumn kept Brezhnev and Kossygin from making the turn to winter wheat in time to guarantee a quick "restoration of the past glory of the Ukraine as a rich wheat-growing region." The big gamble is that later plantings of wheat, oats, barley, buckwheat and millet will be sufficient to refill the depleted Russian granary.

To retrieve the situation, Brezhnev and Kossygin have restored a Ukrainian, V. V. Matskevich, to his old job as Minister of Soviet Agriculture. Matskevich, had been fired in 1960 by Khrushchev after six years in office. His record had been good for the 1955-58 period, but after that nothing seemed to work. Khrushchev sent Matskevich to Kazakhstan, where as an exile he presided over one good harvest, two so-so years, and one complete disaster. But Matskevich's successors at the USSR Ministry of Agriculture had only made matters worse trying to implement what have been called Khrushchev's "hare-brained schemes." The really fundamental question is whether anyone can make a collective farm system produce, even when the right sort of crops are planted at the right time.

This is the dilemma that confronts the Brezhnev-Kossygin leadership, and its resolution could depend on the Kremlin's willingness to let the individual Russian peasant have his own way about the control of his own private plot and his own animals.

The Radio Free Europe agricultural specialists point out that Matskevich, a Ukrainian, is the choice of "the influential Ukrainian group within the Presidium of the Central Committee—Podgorny, Brezhnev, Polyansky, Shelest, Kirilenko." This would indicate that the Ukrainians have won out in a power struggle with the Muscovites, or Great Russians, inside the Central Committee. But the victory has its own built-in dangers, for if Matskevich does not turn out to be a miracle man the Ukrainian group may find itself stuck with its own version of "hare-brained schemes."

Matskevich and the Ukrainians are setting out on the miracle-working path from behind the biggest eighth-hill imaginable. The Soviets have already had to buy 1.7 million tons of western wheat since the 1964 harvest. There hasn't been enough grain fodder for livestock, and in places the milk yield in the Soviet Union has been approximately one-third lower than in previous years. Meatless days have been many, flour has been rationed even for holidays, and there is a great need for investments in agricultural machinery, chemicals, irrigation, farm-to-market roads, and rural housing. Finally, there is the peasant slow-down, which will continue until something has been done to restore incentive to the individual farmer.

So look for the Soviet crisis to come to a head next August. The miracle that Brezhnev and Kossygin must produce makes floating in space seem like child's play by comparison.

'Fall Out For Rifle Inspection'

Are Chinese Red Threats 'Deterrent Talk?'

By Joseph Alsop

WASHINGTON — One of the more wonderful Winston Churchill stories concerns the period, during the first world war, when the great man had been driven from office and was serving at the front as a colonel in the Guards. While at the front he received a parliamentary inspection party.

The lawmakers no doubt expected to make the usual sort of first world war visit to the front, which got little further than a good luncheon at a chateau-head-quarters behind the lines, with the popping of champagne corks punctuating the comfortably distant rumble of artillery. Instead, Churchill characteristically led his visitors into the foremost trenches and kept them there for hours, hungry and knee-deep in mud, under a heavy German barrage.

Finally, one of the group could stand it no longer and asked his formidable escort whether it was not "rather dangerous" to stay so long in the front line under fire. "Well, my dear fellow," Churchill replied, "you have to bear in mind that this is a rather dangerous war."

The story is relevant in all situations when high hazards must be accepted to guard great national interests. It is particularly relevant at the moment, because the Chinese and the North Vietnamese have clearly launched a campaign to make the war in Vietnam seem much more hazardous.

The facts are simple. On Monday, the North Vietnamese Communists' puppet government in the south, the so-called liberation front, broadcast a long, hectoring statement containing two points of some interest. First, negotiations were declared to be impossible at this time. Second, there was a conditional threat, as follows:

"If the U. S. imperialists continue to send their troops . . . into South Vietnam . . . (we) will call on the world peoples to send troops . . . (we) will call on the South Vietnamese children who . . . were regrouped to North Vietnam in 1954) to return to take up weapons to exterminate the enemy."

In an obviously pre-concocted manner, the official "People's Daily" in Peking answered the Vietnamese statement the next day. The reply included a promise "to send our own men, whenever the South Vietnamese people want them."

Among the experts, the chances are considered to be very high that the Chinese Communists are again trying to use words as a substitute for actions. The condition stated by the liberation front—"If the U. S. imperialists continue to send their troops"—probably reveals the real purpose of the two concerted outbursts.

The point is that a heavy increase of the North Vietnamese invasion by infiltration is threatening to upset the military balance in certain areas of South Vietnam, especially the more accessible northern provinces. Meanwhile, the central reserve of the

Accused Slayers Of Mrs. Liuzzo Members Of Klan Terror Squads

(Editors Note: While Drew Pearson is traveling in Europe, the column is written by his associate, Jack Anderson.)

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — The accused killers of Viola Liuzzo, according to the whispers going around the Ku Klux Klan, belong to one of the terrorist squads that do the dirty work for the hooded order.

Sworn to secrecy and schooled in violence, these squads operate outside the regular klan organization. They meet apart from the other members and help keep them in line.

Informants inside the klan say it is no coincidence that the pretty young mother was gunned down through the window of a passing car in exactly the same fashion as Negro educator Lemuel Penn was murdered last summer on a Georgia highway.

The killer squads reportedly have been trained in the shoot-and-run technique.

Significantly, the four men arrested for the Penn slaying belong to the same United Klans of America, largest of the fragmented klans, as do the four men who were arrested for Mrs. Liuzzo's murder.

In the Georgia case, one klanman gave the FBI a full confession which he later repudiated. An all-white jury in Danielsville, Ga., refused to convict the four after their attorney argued im-

Ruler Of The Klan

The United Klans are ruled by a solemn-faced Robert Shelton, who wielded such influence in Alabama affairs that he rose overnight from humble rubber worker to state sales agent for Goodrich Tire Company. He justified the company's confidence in him by landing a $1,600,000 contract from the state.

After this column exposed the whole deal, Shelton was discreetly separated from Goodrich in what the company described as "a reduction in force." Now he ostensibly peddles air conditioners for a living but actually devotes most of his time to selling insurance to loyal klansmen.

Shelton holds forth in a modest, three-room suite on the fourth floor of the Alston Building in downtown Tuscaloosa, Ala. A purple satin robe, the vestment of his exalted office as imperial wizard, hangs in a plastic garment bag near a Confederate flag and a photograph of Alabama's Gov. George Wallace.

Shelton's long, somber face gives him a look of impending doom. He speaks in a soft voice, unsmiling, without humor.

Harangues Of Hatred

There certainly is nothing funny about his harangues of hatred. He alternately preaches violence and non-violence, often in the same speech.

"We don't want no violence," he told his heroes of the hood at a giant rally outside Albany, Ga., "But we ain't gonna let the niggers spit in our face either." He went on to predict bloodshed and victory for the future.

Shelton is most vicious in his vilification of Negroes, whom he depicts as depraved savages not far removed from the jungle. Yet he fraternizes with the Black Muslims, presumably for conspiratorial purposes.

This remarkable tie between black and white extremists was arranged by the United Klans flabby and fleshy mouthpiece, James Venable, whose pasture at the base of Stone Mountain, Ga., is a favorite gathering place for the klan. He has represented both the klan and the Muslims before the bar.

He put Atlanta's Muslim leader, Jeremiah X, in touch with imperial wizard Shelton. Indeed, Jeremiah once put in an appearance with Shelton at a klan rally in Atlanta's Hurd Park. This lone black figure in a sea of white was not only welcomed but hailed for his segregationist stand.

Afraid Of Klan?

Meanwhile, the House un-American Activities Committee is still dragging its feet about investigating the klan. Reason: Chairman Ed Willis, D-La., has a hot bed of klansmen in his own backyard. A splinter group, the original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, is active in Louisiana. Its imperial wizard is a short, stocky redneck with a grade-school education, Royal Virgil Young Sr., who runs the klan out of his home on Route 1 near the sleepy little town of McDade, La. He came to Louisiana from Illinois where he had been an engineer on the Illinois Central Railroad.

Last summer, Young's hooded hoods plotted to ambush Rev. Martin Luther King, the civil rights leader, when he came to Monroe, La. The last minute, however, they chickened out.

The klan has been powerful enough in Bogalusa, La., to frighten merchants from advertising on radio station WBOX, which had dared to attack the klan on the air.

Somewhat less courageous is Congressman Willis, who finds it safer to attack Communists than Klansmen.

Headlines And Footnotes

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, during a briefing of state governors at the White House, remarked that Russia and Red China recently came close to war. He offered no details, and this column has been unable to find out from intelligence sources what happened. . . . President Johnson's appeal to Americans to give up travel abroad and see the United States this year has been ignored. Passport applications are running far ahead of last year. . . . Rep. John Rooney, D-N.Y., will deny it, but he recently proposed that the U.S. government hire underworld killers to bump off Dictator Fidel Castro in Cuba. The proposal got nowhere.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

By Jim Bishop

Say it once. Never repeat. The retelling of a story gives it a limp. Still, I must go back over a recent column to explain something about coconuts. Some of you may recall that I was kidding the "new mathematics." It isn't really new; it's the old drudgery with the phrase "prove it" tacked onto the problem.

Needling, I find, is fatal in writing a column. I posed a ridiculous problem about coconuts and asked the "New" mathematicians to solve it and prove it quickly. It went like this:

Five men are cast up on a desert island. The only vegetation is coconuts. They gather all the coconuts and pile them on the beach. In their work, they find a monkey, and make a pet of him. All agree that they are too tired to divide the coconuts at once; it can wait until morning.

They go to sleep on the beach. In the night, one man awakens and decides to take his pile at once. He divides the coconuts into five groups, finds one left over, and gives it to the monkey. He returns to sleep. A second man awakens, and does the same thing. He divides the coconuts, finds one left over, which he throws to the monkey, buries his pile, and pushes the remaining four piles together.

Each of the men does this. In the morning, they pretend that the size of the pile has not diminished, and they divide the coconuts among themselves, and find one left over. This is also tossed to the silly simian. The question is: what was the least number in the original pile?

I misjudged the number of frustrated mathematicians in our country. Letters have arrived in bulk and, what is worse, they are still coming. They sound like screams of rage.

Mrs. J. W. Garrard of Berkeley, Cal. (I can visualize her with hair askew and eyes blazing) writes: "Here's your solution: ask anybody how coconuts grow, and when they say how, tell them: 'On a tree, any monkey knows that.' A pox on you, Mr. Bishop, for three sleepless nights."

Dorman Luke of West Palm Beach thinks the problem is simple. The answer, he says, is 19,531 coconuts. No, Mr. Luke, not quite. J. H. McGalin of New York says: "The answer is 3,121." Mr. McGalin, shake hands with Mr. Luke.

A girl from the Southwest writes: "I'm only 15, but I have aged 20 years in the past week. I can't figure your problem. Neither can my father or his friends." James Dunn of Brooklyn says: "The first time I was introduced to that monster, it took me 60 hours of on and off effort to get an answer." My friend, give it another 60.

Mark Meirowitz says that he is in the Honor Mathematics class and cannot find a solution. "Even two college students," he writes. Tom Beiter of Lancaster, Ohio, says, "It's 15,621 and if you would like the method I used in solving this algebraic atrocity. . . . No thanks.

Carol Ryan is conspiratorial: "Many of us here (where here is, I'm not permitted to say) including systems analysts, math majors and other stubborn souls have spent their weekends and their relatives' and friends' weekends. . . . Joseph Vazalis of Baltimore says: 'I still have to use a second-hand adding machine to tot up bills in this house, but about that coconut snatching: I say the answer is one. The rest of the problem is just foliage intended to mislead and deceive.'"

Robert McWilliams of Sykesville, Md., says he keeps coming up with one coconut too many. E. G. Bidgood of Detroit says that, unknown to me, the monkey kept digging up the coconuts and returning them to the original pile. Ise Hassel of Seattle says: "Impossible. The only nut is you."

Right, Miss Hassel. The problem is impossible, and I am the nut. I presented the insoluble to the "New" mathematicians to see if they could find an answer and — more important — prove it. To solve this one, it would be necessary to work exclusively in numbers whose final digits remain six or one. There are five men, and it is necessary always to have one coconut left over for the monkey so, no matter how long the number, it must end in a six or a one and, after each pile is buried, the remaining four fifths must end in a six or a one. It can't be done. However, I did not think that hosts of readers would take the thing seriously, and wear down pencils, pads and tempers doing it. To make up for it, I will give you a problem, and the solution.

A and B are on bicycles 100 miles apart. A fly, on the front tire of A's bicycle, leaves it as A starts toward B at 20 miles per hour, and flies at a rate of 35 miles per hour to B's front tire. B starts at the same time, moving toward A at 30 miles per hour. The fly gets to B's front tire, touches it, and flies back to A's front tire. He keeps doing this until the bicycles collide and he is crushed between the tires. How long has he flown?

Answer: The question is not, how far, but how long. If A and B approach each other from a distance of 100 miles at a combined rate of 50 miles per hour, the answer must be two hours. Me, I've been a problem all my life. . . .

Electronic Feeding Machine Aid For Obese

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

The current low carbohydrate reducing fad is a reminder that most people select spring and fall to lose those five to eight pounds gained during the interval. These people have a weight problem but make a definite point to remain slim by dieting twice a year. The cue usually comes when they change from winter to summer clothing (or vice versa) and the apparel is a bit too tight.

This problem is insignificant compared with the difficulty that the grossly obese have in losing weight. Many have psychological problems that add to the task. According to the Medical Tribune, a feeding machine at St. Luke's Hospital in New York City was successful in cutting the food intake of these people.

This electronically-monitored food dispensing system was tried on five obese and six of normal weight. The user holds the end of a tube in the mouth and pushes a button that delivers a calculated amount of formula food. There is no limitation on how often they can use the machine. A recording device in another room registers the amount and time of each feeding.

It was a surprise to find that the obese consumed much less than normal individuals and lost weight. Normal persons adhered to a three-meal-a-day pattern; their weight remained stationary.

Weight loss without hunger is more likely to occur when the individual fasts than when eating a low-calorie diet. Prolonged starvation (more than 96 hours) produces virtually no hunger and is well tolerated. Weight loss occurs and the majority are enthusiastic and delighted to attain their goal. The plan appears to be safe until examined more thoroughly. When carbohydrate stores are used up, the body begins to burn stored fats and muscle protein for energy. Many develop anemia, a sudden drop in blood pressure on standing, and gout. The consensus: There is no harm in fasting for a day or two at intervals but not for months at a time.

In Acapulco, a clever housewife has learned an easy way to toss a salad. You cut up lettuce and tomatoes, throw in a couple of Mexican jumping beans—and the salad tosses ITSELF.

At an international conclave of savants, the question arose on what the influence of the Crusades had been on subsequent history. One old Chinese professor refused to comment, explaining, "It's still too early to tell."

Bob Hope is still grumbling about the wisecracker he encountered at a Monterey veterans' hospital. He had just concluded one of his innumerable benefit appearances, and wound up with a jaunty, "Hope you're better soon, boys." The wisecracking vet sang back, "Same to you!"

What with fewer ladies reporting at sewing bees and more spending their afternoons in bowling alleys, it strikes Gordon Macrae that the girls have changed from needles to pins.

Chinese Pork And Pepper

Try this pork dish:
Chinese Pork And Pepper
 1/2 pound lean pork, diced
 2 tablespoons olive oil
 1 small onion, chopped
 1 garlic clove, minced
 1 cup sliced celery
 1 green pepper, seeded, cut in 1-inch squares
 1 small can water chestnuts, drained and sliced
 1 tablespoon cornstarch
 3 tablespoons soy sauce
 2 tablespoons dry sherry
 1 cup water

1 teaspoon or packet chicken stock base or bouillon cube
 Sauté the pork in olive oil until well browned; remove, keep warm. Add the onion, celery and garlic to the oil, sauté over moderate heat until soft. Add the green pepper and water chestnuts, replace the pork in the pan and cook 1 minute. Blend together cornstarch, soy sauce, sherry and water; add to the pork in the pan. Add the chicken stock base or bouillon cube, stir until dissolved. Cook about 3 minutes. Serve with rice. Serves 3 or 4.

Super-Sandwiches

Sandwiches and lunchtime go hand-in-hand. Mix shredded western iceberg lettuce with real mayonnaise, chopped nuts, chopped pickle and a little prepared mustard. Spread bread with butter or margarine and canned deviled ham; top with lettuce mixture and buttered bread.

Cheese-Avocado Salad

Mound cottage cheese in a bed of lettuce. Dice California avocado over the cheese, sprinkle with lemon juice and garnish with parsley or mint springs.

Try Lobster Tails And Deviled Eggs

LOBSTER AND DEVILED EGGS are meatless treats.

Looking for a meatless main dish to serve guests? We've found one you'll welcome. Enjoyed it last night at a special dinner party which included some guests who abstain from meat on certain days during Lent. Everyone was happy. The combination of rock lobster tails and deviled eggs was served in small, attractive individual dishes.

South African Rock Lobster And Deviled Eggs

(6 to 12 oz.) South African rock lobster tails

 6 shelled hard-cooked eggs
 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
 1 teaspoon minced onion
 1/4 cup mayonnaise
 6 tablespoons butter
 6 tablespoons flour
 3 cups vegetable stock
 2 tablespoons catsup
 Drop South African rock lobster tails into boiling salted water. When water reboils, simmer 3 minutes. Drain, drench with cold water and cut away underside membrane. Remove meat carefully in one piece, cool and split in half lengthwise. Remove yolks and mash with fork until fine. Blend well with mustard, onion and mayonnaise. Spoon mixture back into egg halves. Place 2 rock lobster halves and 2 stuffed eggs into individual baking dishes or ramekins. Melt butter. Stir in flour. Gradually stir in vegetable stock and catsup. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until smooth and thick. Spoon sauce over the rock lobster and egg halves.

 Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 10 minutes.

Eggplant Skillet, Broiler Dish

Savory main dish from skillet and broiler.
Eggplant With Tomato Sauce
 1 eggplant, about 1 pound
 1/2 pound butter or margarine
 1 small onion, chopped
 1/2 medium green pepper, chopped
 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
 1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
 Wash and dry eggplant; do not remove skin; cut into 1/2-inch thick crosswise slices—there should be 8 to 10. In a 10-inch skillet that may be put into the broiler, beat a couple tablespoons of the butter; fry eggplant over moderate heat, one layer at a time, until cooked through and browned on both sides; use all but a tablespoon of the butter adding it as needed.

Drain eggplant on paper toweling. Add remaining tablespoon butter to skillet with onion and green pepper and cook vegetables until wilted; add tomato sauce and heat. Return eggplant to sauce; sprinkle with cheese. Broil until very hot and lightly browned. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Carrots Star In New Soup

A new soup:
Carrot Soup (Potato Crecy)
 3 cups sliced carrots
 1 cup diced potatoes
 6 cups chicken or beef stock
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 Chopped fresh parsley
 Cooked carrot rings
 Cook carrots and potatoes in stock until they are tender, about 25 minutes. Push through a sieve. Add seasonings and butter or margarine. Serve hot, garnished with chopped fresh parsley and a few cooked carrot rings. Serves four.

Lobster Terminology

Know your lobster terminology? The greenish part you sometimes see when you split a cooked lobster is called the tomalley — it's the crustacean's liver which turns green when the lobster is boiled.

COOK'S TOUR

By JEANNE LEMM

NEW YORK (UPI) — Children CARE is the American nickname for a highly-spiced buttermilk beverage served to pupils in a school in Ceylon. It was developed by the school's headmaster to make powdered milk from CARE food packages acceptable to the children, who sorely need animal protein that milk helps provide. This novel use for powdered milk is a good example of the ways in which CARE package foods are being used to beef up protein-short diets in under-developed nations.

Fred Devine, deputy executive director of the Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere, Inc. (CARE), said that it isn't always easy to introduce unfamiliar foods to the undernourished and starving. As recently as 10 years ago, he added, many persons still chose starvation rather than eating foods forbidden by local fetiches or taboos.

Word Spreads

"Now if you can get one community started, word spreads almost like a telegraphic system," Devine said, in an interview. "You begin to get petitions (for help) from other communities with enlightened mayors and teachers." Nearly 80 per cent of CARE's 1965 food crusade packages are earmarked for school lunches and institutional feeding, he added. The institutions include homes for the aged and orphanages. Devine said that a strong wish to educate their children motivates many parents to permit the youngsters to form new diet patterns.

The voluntary agency, established after World War II to help rehabilitate war-torn countries, hopes to raise $6.5 million this year to send as many food packages to 37,700,000 needy in 34 countries. Each package contains 27 pounds or more of surplus United States staples to supplement local food.

"Every country has some sort of seasonal surplus, which it can add," said Devine. But there isn't enough protein food or rice to keep up with the population explosion, much of which is in rice-eating areas. So CARE sends commodities such as powdered milk, fats and oils, corn meal and bulgur, a wheat product widely used for centuries in the Middle East. CARE personnel, helped by local experts, teach recipients how to use them.

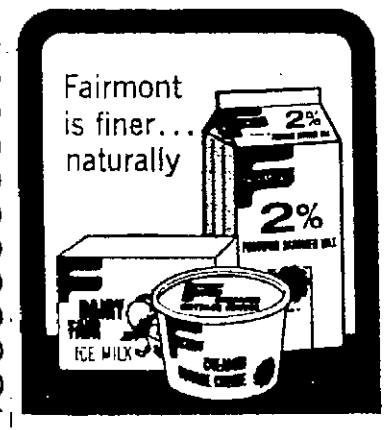

Adapt Foods

Local people soon adapt the foods to their own centuries-old cooking methods, as did the Ceylonese headmaster. In India, CARE corn meal is prepared as uppuma (pronounced up-ma), a highly-seasoned porridge containing mustard seeds, curry leaves, ginger, onions and green chilies. The Turks boil corn meal and mix it with rice to make pilaf. prepare it as pudding with re-constituted powdered milk and sugar, cook it with vegetables and lamb. Hong Kong families substitute bulgur for rice in congee, a sugared thin porridge, or use it with flour and powdered milk to make bread.

Devine said that he sees benefits for both recipients and donors in the changing diet patterns. He cited as an example CARE contributions to the post-war school lunch program in Japan. He said that the contributions helped increase the height, mental alertness and physical fitness of pupils, while quietly, subtly creating a new market for U.S. foods. So much so that Japan, he said, now is the largest single commercial importer of our foods.

Deep-Dish Fruit Pie

On a cold night, a warm dessert like "Deep-Dish Fruit Pie" is hard to beat for eating satisfaction. Canned cling peach slices and apple slices provide flavor compatibility galore, and the syrup from the can of peaches makes a delectable sauce.

Deep-Dish Fruit Pie
2 medium-size apples
1 can (1 pound, 13 ounces) cling peach slices
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine
Cream (optional)
Pare, halve, core and slice apples; arrange in bottom of 9-inch baking dish. Pour peach-syrup from the can of peaches over apples.

to form second layer. Mix flour and sugar; cut in butter to make crumbly mixture. Sprinkle over fruit; pat down to make smooth surface. Bake in 350 degree (moderate) oven about 45 minutes. Serve with cream. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Rise In Per Capita Meat Eating Seen

The average American will eat about 4 more pounds of meat this year than last, reports the United States Department of Agriculture.

All of the increase will be in beef and veal, which has been in especially good supply and at reasonable retail prices. Per capita consumption of red meat is expected to total 173 pounds—a record high.

Maple-cream cheese topping is fluffy and light and just right for baker's pumpkin pie. You can create 1/2 cupful of this topping by whipping together a 3-ounce package of cream cheese with 2 tablespoons honest-to-goodness maple syrup. A fluffy spoonful per serving will do.

Hot Cross Buns Can Bring Good Luck

HOT CROSS BUNS — Take a cue from England and bake them with pastry crosses.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

YES, THERE IS something new about Hot Cross Buns. New to America, anyway.

This year we bake our buns in British fashion — with crosses of pastry. If you like Hot Cross Buns that are not so sweet as the usual American version, do try this recipe.

If you want to follow an old British custom, serve the buns on Good Friday and hang one of them from the kitchen ceiling. Leave it there until the next Good Friday and you'll have good luck the year through!

Hot Cross Buns
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
2 eggs
1 teaspoon cinnamon
4 cups (about) unsifted flour
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup chopped candied fruit
Milk
Pastry for crosses
Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and butter; cool to lukewarm. In a large warm bowl, dissolve yeast in the water. Stir in over the top of each bun. Cover; lukewarm milk mixture, eggs, let rise in a warm draft-free place until doubled in bulk — about 1 1/2 hours. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto a lightly floured board or prepared pastry cloth and knead until smooth and elastic — about 10 minutes. Place in a greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in a warm draft-free place until doubled in bulk — about 1 hour.

Meanwhile prepare pastry for crosses and refrigerate as directed. Punch down dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or prepared pastry cloth. Add raisins and candied fruit; knead into dough until well distributed. Divide dough in half; form each half into a 12-inch long roll. Cut each roll into 12 equal pieces; form into smooth balls. Arrange 12 balls in each of 2 well-greased 8-inch round layer-cake pans. Cover and let stand at room temperature while preparing pastry crosses.

Remove pastry ball from refrigerator and place on prepared pastry cloth; flatten with palm of hand. With prepared stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll out into a 9 by 8 inch rectangle. Cut into 3 bands, each 3 by 8 inches. Cut each band into 16 strips, each 3 by 1/2-inch; there will be 48 strips all together.

Lightly brush top and sides of buns with milk. Place 2 pastry strips in the shape of a cross, the yeast in the water. Stir in over the top of each bun. Cover; lukewarm milk mixture, eggs, let rise in a warm draft-free place until doubled in bulk — about 1 1/2 hours. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto a lightly floured board or prepared pastry cloth and knead until smooth and elastic — about 10 minutes. Place in a greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in a warm draft-free place until doubled in bulk — about 1 hour.

Bake in a hot 400 degree oven until tops of buns (but not pastry) are brown — 20 to 30 minutes; pastry crosses should remain white. If tops of buns brown too fast, place a sheet of foil, without tucking down sides, over them. Serve (with butter) at once, or reheat.

Pastry (For Crosses)
1 cup unsifted flour
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
3 to 4 tablespoons ice water
Stir together the flour, sugar and salt. With a pastry blender, cut in shortening until particles are fine. Sprinkle ice water, 1 tablespoon at a time, over flour mixture, tossing lightly with fork after each addition. When mixture is just moist enough to hold together, shape into a ball. Wrap in wax paper or saran and refrigerate until ready to use.

Delicious And Nutritious
Step right up for a slice of Mince-meat Custard Pie and sit down to enjoy good eating and good nutrition. Does that sound too good to be true? Well, it is true. Nutritionists recommend that children have 3 or more glasses of milk daily; teenagers 4 or more glasses; adults 2 or more glasses. Part of this recommended amount can be supplied by milk used in recipes—such as Mince-meat Custard Pie. This recipe is an example of something that tastes good, being good for you, too.

When planning menus and choosing recipes, remember also that part of the daily recommended amount of milk can be supplied by other dairy products. Ice cream and all types of cheese supply the same nutrients as the milk from which they are made. If you have family members that don't care for a glass of milk, just whip up a recipe such as Mince-meat Custard Pie. They will be eating the milk instead!

MINCEMEAT CUSTARD PIE
1 cup prepared mince-meat
1 9-inch unbaked pastry shell with high fluted edge
4 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon rum extract
2 1/2 cups milk, scalded

Spread mince-meat over bottom of pastry shell. Combine eggs, sugar, salt, vanilla and rum extract; beat. Add milk and blend well. Pour over mince-meat. Bake in a hot oven, 400°, about 35 minutes or until custard is set. Makes one 9-inch pie.

A Between Meal Help-Yourself:
An open package of the new soft-moisturized prunes is an invitation to the whole family — which is just as it should be. Prunes are the perfect between meal bite, plump, meaty, slightly chewy, fruity-good and fairly bursting with vitamins and minerals. They take the edge off hunger without spoiling appetite for the meal to come.

Olives, Cloves Garlic Make A Green Salad
Julia's Olives
1 can (about 1 pound) ripe olives
2 tablespoons olive oil
3 large cloves garlic, peeled and quartered
Turn olives with their liquid into a pint (or a little larger) jar. Add olive oil and garlic. Pack olives and some of the garlic pieces down so they are submerged by the liquid; allow a few pieces of garlic to float on the oil at the top. Cover tightly and refrigerate overnight. Drain and use in a green salad. Use only 1 clove garlic if you don't like strong garlic flavor.
Halved, peeled fresh pears are especially delicious with a pour-over of chilled apple juice.

The Road To SUCCESS

via AMERICA'S SMALLEST BUSINESS FIRMS

A great number of the successful men of today, started on the road to success as local daily newspaper carriers—“America's Smallest Business Firms”. Many detours on this road to success were avoided through the training they received as newspaper carriers. A newspaper carrier of today gains confidence in his own abilities by meeting and talking to new people — his potential customers. Through collecting money from his customers and paying his newspaper bill for his route, he learns the value of thrift and the responsibilities expected of him. He learns that he is not only responsible to his newspaper, but his customers are depending on him to deliver their newspaper promptly and courteously. All of these, responsibility, dependability, thrift, courteousness, and confidence in himself, help to pave the road to success . . .

Queen City COTTAGE CHEESE

It's salad-eating time! Right now, there's a fabulous selection of fresh fruits and vegetables at your grocery and they're just begging to be combined with dairy-fresh Queen City Cottage Cheese. Its cool creaminess gives a lively lift to all your meals . . . and it gives your family healthful protein, too. Make your salads simply delicious! Serve fresh fruits and vegetables with Queen City Cottage Cheese . . . at the store or your door.

Honey Crunch Ice Milk

Two of nature's most perfect foods — milk and honey — are combined to make honey crunch ice milk, a new frozen dessert developed by E. L. Fouts, dairy technologist at the University of Florida.

Coconut macaroons are the surprise ingredients that make it crunch.

So far, honey crunch ice milk has been a big success. It tastes good, and it's good for you. The new dessert is lower in fat but higher in protein than most ice creams.

Although developed initially for commercial production Dr. Fouts offers his formula to any dairy that wants it. Honey crunch ice milk can also be made in a home freezer. Here's the recipe:

Honey Crunch Ice Milk
2 quarts rich milk
1 large can evaporated milk
1/2 pound honey
1/2 pound sugar
2 eggs
1/2 pound macaroons
Mix together all ingredients, except macaroons. Heat in double boiler over low flame, stirring continuously until mixture thickens slightly. Cool thoroughly, first in water, then allow to set in refrigerator until cold, preferably overnight.

Place mixture in 1 gallon freezer and freeze, using ice and salt in usual manner. When the ice milk becomes partially frozen, add crushed macaroons, mix in well, and harden.

The renowned Oscar of the Waldorf added the tanginess of sharp cheese for a magnificent touch to the whole family — which is just as it should be. Prunes are the perfect between meal bite, plump, meaty, slightly chewy, fruity-good and fairly bursting with vitamins and minerals. They take the edge off hunger without spoiling appetite for the meal to come.

Between Meal Help-Yourself:
An open package of the new soft-moisturized prunes is an invitation to the whole family — which is just as it should be. Prunes are the perfect between meal bite, plump, meaty, slightly chewy, fruity-good and fairly bursting with vitamins and minerals. They take the edge off hunger without spoiling appetite for the meal to come.

Antique Car Show Entries At Meyersdale Exceed Previous Registrations

MEYERSDALE, PA.— Registrations are way above last year and interest is riding high in the third annual Maple Antique Car Show to be held here Sunday, April 4, the final day of the 1965 Somerset County Maple Festival.

Antique Car show officials report the registration of several national competition winners in the 1965 event, which appears to be on its way to a big year. The show has steady growth since its inception, and last year almost doubled in size.

National competition winners registered include Classic Cars from Wheeling, W. Va.; a 1916 Crawford touring car from Akron, Ohio; and several high wheelers from the early 1900's. Providing repairs can be made in time, officials also expect to have a Stanley Steamer on hand, the first time a steam car has been shown here.

Although pre-registrations are being taken, late registrations will be accepted at the Acme Parking Lot, Route 219 south, on the day of the show beginning at 11 a.m. The show will officially open to the public at 12:15 p.m.

Judges will select the top antique cars, and after awarding of trophies, an antique car parade, led by the winners, will be staged through the center of Meyersdale. A total of 14 trophies will be awarded to winners and all show participants will be awarded a brass plaque. The trophies will go to two winners in six different classes.

Chairman Miss Regina Wagner and her co-chairman traveled over 2,300 miles last summer working up interest in the show. Because of the preparations that have been made for the first time a rain date has been set if weather conditions do not permit having the show, April 4. This date will be three weeks later on Sunday, April 25.

Press Auto Mart, Sanders' Gulf Station YMCA Senior Winners

Assassins Bow, 47 To 34; PPG Is 69-32 Loser

Dayton's Tramples Schwarzenbach's, Aces Top Fugitives

Two more teams bit the dust last night in the crowded Senior Unlimited Class as the 20th-annual YMCA-Optimist Club Gold Medal Basketball Tournament being staged at the Central YMCA concluded its second day.

The Senior Unlimited was pared to 20 as Press Auto Mart topped Jake's Assassins, 47-34, and Sanders' Gulf clubbed Pittsburgh Plate Glass, 69-32.

James Steed sparked the Press Auto win with 14 points on seven

Today's Schedule

8:00—Blow's Clowns vs. Hank's Pharmacy (13)

7:00—Vespene vs. State Farm (Sr.)

8:00—Dresden Hotel vs. The Cumberlanders (Sr.)

9:00—Moorefield All-Stars vs. Black Knights (Sr.)

field goals. Ken McDowell and Bob Wilson each had ten points for the losers.

Jake's lost out by making only eight field goals, while Press Auto Mart had 20. At the foul line, however, Jake's had the best night to date in the tournament, converting 18 of 29 attempts to account for most of their points. McDowell and Wilson each made eight foul shots.

Femi, Conner Pace Attack

Ted Femi's ten field goals and 21 points led Sanders' Gulf to their lopsided victory. Rick Conner, schoolboy star this year at Hyndman, had 19 tallies, while Bill Johnson had 12 and Howard Wisler had ten.

For the losers, Howard Reynolds had 19 points, including nine for ten at the foul line. However, PPG was only 10 for 20 in foul shooting, while the winners were seven for 13. Sanders' had 31 accurate shots from the floor to Pittsburgh Plate's eleven.

Sanders' meets the Romyne Applemen in a second round game this Thursday at 8 p.m. Press Auto Mart will play Carling Black Label next Monday night at nine o'clock.

In the only Junior Unlimited action, Corley's Aces won in a breeze over The Fugitives, 61-23. Dennis Blank fired in 18 points, Darrel Blank had 16, and Stan Hook hooked in 13 as The Fugitives found no place to hide.

Brehm Leads Fugitives

Highest scoring Fugitive was Jerry Brehm, who managed four field goals for eight points. All told, the losers had ten fielders and three for eight at the line, while Corley's had 29 two-pointers and three for four at the fifteen-foot line.

The Aces rolled up a 16-4 lead in the first quarter, maintained a 25-15 domination at halftime, and surged to a 44-17 gap in the third quarter, as the losers were able to score only two points to their nineteen.

Corley's will meet Tri-Towns, who drew a first-round bye, in a semi-final contest next Wednesday, April 7, at 7 p.m. Blow's Killowatts and Kean's Missils are the other teams still alive in the Junior Unlimited Class.

Gary Leasure Scores 15 Points

In the tournament's first 135-pound encounter, Dayton's Service Station walloped Schwarzenbach's 47-37, as Gary Leasure pumped in 15 points.

The losers were led by C. Fields' 16 markers. Dayton's had an 18-11 edge in field goals and ten for 14 to Schwarzenbach's five for 11 at the free throw mark. Dayton's lead at the half was a comfortable 30-13.

The winner of tonight's game between Blow's Clowns and Hank's Pharmacy will clash with Dayton's in a semi-final game Thursday, April 8, at 6 p.m.

Finley Discredits Lane's Prediction

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, Tuesday brushed aside a prediction by his former general manager that the A's would move to Milwaukee when he Braves leave.

"We can't attach any credit to that," Finley said of the prediction by Frank Lane.

Lane, who was fired by Finley as A's general manager, told Milwaukee Sentinel baseball writer Lou Chapman "if Milwaukee is vacant, Mr. Finley would move in there bag and baggage."

Hull's Status Is Undecided

Bobby May Miss Stanley Cup Playoffs

DETROIT (UPI) — The Chicago Black Hawks may be seeking the fourth Stanley Cup in the club's history without the services of No. 1 star Bobby Hull.

Hull, the prolific scoring left wing, is suffering with an injured left knee. He has worn a brace on it since March 21, but didn't play in any games during the final week of the regular season. He scored 39 goals in Chicago's first 48 games before suffering injuries to both knees.

Chicago coach Billy Reay had hull practice for the first time in eight days Tuesday, but didn't comment whether he'll play in Thursday night's first semi-final playoff game against the regular-season champion Detroit Red Wings.

It's a best-of-seven series with the winner meeting the Toronto Maple Leaf-Montreal Canadiens victor for the Cup.

But, even if Hull does play against the Wings, he'll be used sparingly and will have a new role.

"I doubt very seriously that he would see as much ice time as he does under normal circumstances," Reay said. "And I wouldn't use his line against the Gordie Howe line. Not at this time, anyhow."

Hull and Howe, who both wear No. 9, play on the top line for the respective clubs. In the 14 regular season games, with Chicago gaining an 8-5-1 edge, the Hull-Howe lines were pitted against each other.

Brodbeck Named Fordham Captain

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bruce Brodbeck, a 6-1 backcourt man whose late season performance helped carry Fordham into the National Invitation Tournament, has been elected captain of the 1965-66 Rams' basketball team.

Brodbeck, a substitute for the first half of the season, broke into the starting lineup simultaneously with the advent of coach John Bach's zone press and sparked the Rams to 11 wins in their next 14 games.

Schayes' 76ers Feel Confident Of Playoff Win

Team Is Healthiest Since Series Began

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Philadelphia 76ERS feel confident to a man they will defeat the Cincinnati Royals Wednesday night and earn the right to face Boston for the Eastern Division title of the National Basketball Association.

The same confidence was expressed by coach Dolph Schayes, who said the entire team, including the ailing Wilt Chamberlain, is "the healthiest since the playoffs began."

The 76ERS beat Cincinnati 108-94 last Sunday to take a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five Eastern Division semi-finals.

"If we play the kind of ball we've been playing during the past three games, there's no doubt we'll win," Schayes said. "I expect Wilt Chamberlain to explode, and with the rest of the boys, carry us to victory."

Cincinnati hopes to continue the pattern of winning in the 76ERS' hometown. They took the first game 121-120 but the win came on the arena court which is unfamiliar to the 76ERS.

Wednesday night's game will be played at Convention Hall, the 76ERS regular stomping grounds.

The Royals have their problems, too, especially with the injured foot of leading scorer, Oscar Robertson.

Bullets Win NBA Playoff Series, 109-103

Loughery Stars Against Hawks, Pettit Bows Out

Baltimore Meets Los Angeles Lakers In Western Finals

By GORDON BEARD

BALTIMORE (AP) — Kevin Loughery scored 31 points as the Baltimore Bullets defeated the St. Louis Hawks 109-103 Tuesday night and advanced to the Western Division finals of the National Basketball Association playoffs.

Loughery, seldom the high scorer for Baltimore, hit 11 of 22 shots from his backcourt position and also assisted on six other baskets while turning in one of his best offensive performances of the season.

Three quick baskets by Baltimore with five minutes remaining snapped a 94-94 tie, and although the Hawks pulled to within two points in the last minute of play, Baltimore remained ahead for keeps.

With the score deadlocked at 94-94, Loughery assisted on a goal by Walt Bellamy, the 6-foot-11 center who made only nine points in the game.

Don Ohl Scores 19 Points

Don Ohl, who tallied 19, then hit a field goal off a Bellamy pick and then added another goal after picking up a loose ball and driving almost the entire length of the court.

St. Louis, which enjoyed a 14-point lead early in the game, rallied to within 105-103 with 37 seconds left to play.

Cliff Hagan, who started in place of Bob Pettit, connected on only one of three free throws, but the Hawks controlled the rebound and Zelma Beatty was fouled and he sank two more free throws.

Foul Shots Close Scoring

Two foul shots by Gus Johnson and two more by Loughery closed out the scoring in the final 23 seconds.

St. Louis, which finished in second place eight games ahead of Baltimore, led 77-70 two minutes left in the third period. But the Bullets rallied behind Loughery and Ohl to pull even at 82-82.

St. Louis went ahead 88-84 on four points by player-coach Richie Guerin, only to have Baltimore rally again to tie it at 94-94.

Finishes With 23.344

Pettit played only 14 minutes and scored six points to close out a brilliant 11-year career. He finished with 23.344 points in regular season, All-Star and playoff competition.

Johnson scored 18 points for Baltimore and Bailey Howell added 14 before fouling out. Hagan topped St. Louis with 24, while Guerin had 29.

Baltimore opens the division finals playoff in Los Angeles Saturday against the Lakers.

Brian London Cops Decision

Wins Over Walker In Wembley Scrap

WEMBLEY, Eng. (UPI) — Experience triumphed over youth at the Empire Pool Tuesday night when veteran Brian London decisively beat Billy Walker over 10 action-packed rounds.

London, 30, upset the odds by handing Walker a boxing lesson which crushed the "Blonde Bombers" so-called golden image.

There were no knockdowns during one of the most exciting fights seen at the famed Pool, but both men showed signs of having been in a scrap.

London finished with a gash over his left eye and while Walker's left eye was virtually closed and his nose dripped blood for much of the fight.

London scaled 200½ pounds against 155½ for the 26-year-old Walker.

United Press International scored eight rounds for London, one for Walker and one even.

Detroit Tigers' Jim Northrup

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

LAKELAND, Fla.—"Rookie of the Year" in the International League with Syracuse last year, James Thomas Northrup is making a run for the left field spot on the Detroit Tiger varsity this season although a recent heart attack suffered by his father and one suffered by manager Charlie Dressen has upset him a bit.

Acting manager Bob Swift singles out Northrup as being "about ready" and Bob had him on his Puerto Rican team this winter. Jim hit .331 for him.

The 25-year-old Michigan product has had four seasons in the minors and has hit .300 or better for the last three.

Coach Pat Mullin of the Tigers says that Jim swings a good bat but needs a little help on fielding ground balls.

Jim was an all-around athlete at St. Louis, Mich., high playing quarterback on the football team, averaging 21 points a game on the cage squad, hitting over .300 and pitching on the baseball team and running the 440 and participating on the broad jump and high jump in track.

Jim attended Alma, Mich., College where he made the All-Conference team in baseball, having an 8-1 record as a pitcher, including a no-hitter and batting .340.

Northrup graduated with a B.S. degree in a pre-med course and signed with the Bengals in the autumn of 1960 for a $20,000.

bonus although he had been planning to sign with the Chicago White Sox.

In his first year in pro ball Jim was at Duluth and Decatur, then went to Knoxville and finally Syracuse last year where he hit .312 and batted out 18 homers. While at Duluth in 1962 Jim just missed the batting title, hitting .3246 to the winner's .3249.

Jim is married and has two children, Jim, Jr., 4, and Paige Leigh. His wife named the boy and Jim named the girl after seeing a movie featuring girls with those names.

Spiezio's Belt Helps Cardinals Beat Yanks, 4-3

Redbird Youngster Boasts .619 Average

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — Hot-hitting Ed Spiezio smashed a 430-foot triple in the ninth inning Tuesday for the winning run in a St. Louis Cardinal 4-3 conquest of the New York Yankees.

It was the first time the two teams have met since the Redbirds won the World Series from the New Yorkers last season.

Spiezio, a 23-year-old third baseman-outfielder with slightly more than a year's pro experience, smacked the triple off Roland Sheldon, who absorbed the loss. But Spiezio lost batting percentage points with one hit in two trips. He's now hitting .619 with 13 for 21.

Al Downing gave up two Cardinal runs in the first inning on a walk, Lou Brock's triple and Dick Groat's single.

The Yanks picked up one in the fifth inning when Clete Boyer was safe on a hot smash that hit his brother, Ken, in the face. Tony Kubek followed by beating out a hunt and Tom Tresh's single brought Clete around to score.

Kubek's double and Tresh's single in the seventh scored another run for the Yankees and they tied it in the eighth on consecutive singles by Arturo Lopez, John Blanchard and Joe Pepitone.

The winning pitcher was Mike Cuellar, who came in after Bob Purkey went six innings and Ray Washburn pitched two frames.

Torres Wins Over Pastrano By TKO, Griffith Retains Title

Wille Halted After 9 Rounds, Jose Stable Loses Unanimously

By TIM MORIARTY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jose Torres, a wild bull from Puerto Rico, won the world light heavyweight title Tuesday night by scoring a technical knockout over Willie Pastrano at the end of the ninth round after Emile Griffith successfully defended his welterweight crown by scoring a unanimous 15-round decision over Jose Stable.

Latin-Americans Jubilant

Latin-American rooters, who made up approximately half of the huge throng, swarmed about the ringside when the fight was stopped and their hero, Torres the Bull, was awarded the victory.

It was only the second time in Pastrano's long career that he had been stopped. He also lost to Brian London on a cut brow in 1958.

For Torres, a 28-year-old native of Playa Ponce, P.R., it was his 35th victory in 37 fights and his 26th kayo.

Torres was far ahead on all scorecards when the end came. Lohianco favored the Puerto Rican 80-1, judge Joe Armstrong had him ahead, 7-2, and judge Tony Castellano agreed, 6-2-1.

Boxing's first indoor championship twin bill at Madison Square Garden attracted a crowd of 15,112 which paid $239.956—a record gross gate for the 44-year old punch palace.

Torres, a 7-5 underdog, felled Pastrano for a ninth count in the sixth round as the fight.

Puerto Rican's wildly-cheering fans went mad with delight. It was the first time Pastrano had been felled in 84 fights covering 13 years of pro boxing.

However, Torres did even greater damage in the fifth round when he opened a gash under Pastrano's left eye.

He kept hammering away at the injury until referee John Lohianco called a halt to the fight between the ninth and 10th rounds.

Under the rules of the New York State commission, it will go into the books as a ninth-round TKO.

Solid Jobs And Hooks

Griffith, a 13-5 favorite, took command early in Tuesday night's first title clash and wore down the 24-year-old challenger from Cuba with solid Square Garden attracted a crowd of 15,112 which paid $239.956—a record gross gate for the 44-year old punch palace.

The remarkable aspect of the fight was that Stable, who never before went more than 10 rounds, was on his feet at the finish, for Griffith punished him throughout most of the fight.

Clever Counter-Punching

Then, starting in the third round, Griffith took command, winning the next five by big margins as he showed the young Cuban who was boss with clever counter punching.

Stable tired somewhat thereafter, and even when he would attempt to halt Griffith's power. (Continued on Page 26)

Mike Venezia Is Suspended Twenty Days

Miskodeed, Ycaza's Mount, Disqualified

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jockey Mike Venezia was handed a second 10-day suspension Tuesday by the stewards at Aqueduct who gave the young rider a first 10-day ban Monday.

The total of 20 days on the grounds left Venezia with only five racing days in which to enjoy the five-pound weight allowance he gets as an apprentice. Venezia loses "the bug" on April 25, the anniversary of his first win.

The original suspension starts Wednesday and runs through April 9. The second one picks up on April 10 and runs through April 19.

Both suspensions were handed to Venezia for permitting his mounts to cut in front of other horses.

Manny Ycaza had his first ride in New York this season in Tuesday's second race. His mount, Miskodeed, was disqualified for a similar infraction.

Miskodeed cut in front of Badger Pie in the stretch and jockey Ron Turcotte had to pull up Badger Pie sharply.

The stewards will study the films of the race Wednesday to decide if Ycaza tried to hold his mount straight. If they think he did, he will be held blameless. If they think he didn't, he too faces suspension as did Venezia.

Dodgers Lose, 2-0, To Chisox Despite Koufax's 4-Hitter

SARASOTA, Fla. (UPI)—Bruce Howard and Greg Bello combined for a three-hitter Tuesday and the Chicago White Sox shut out the Los Angeles Dodgers, 2-0.

Sandy Koufax fired a four-hitter for the Dodgers and fanned 10 while going the route for the second time this spring.

Rookie outfielder Tommie Agee and Don Buford beat the Dodgers with their speed.

Agee walked, raced to third on Buford's hit single and scored on Bill Skowron's sacrifice fly in the third inning.

Chicago scored its other run in the second on Ken Berry's double. Jim Schaffer's single and a double play grounded.

Giant Bonus Baby Sent To Minors

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants Tuesday assigned $125,000 former bonus baby Bob Garibaldi and seven other players to farm teams to trim their roster to 28 men.

Garibaldi, former Santa Clara University pitching star, has had arm trouble. He was regarded as one of the outstanding young college players in the country at the time he signed with the Giants.

Garibaldi was optioned to Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League, along with pitchers Dick Estelle and Al Stanek, catcher Randy Hundley and outfielder Arlo Engel.

Returned to Casa Grande, Ariz., the Giants minor league training complex, for reassignment were pitchers Bill Wade and Dick Sparks and infielder Larry Edmondson.

Robinson, O'Toole, Coleman Spark Reds' 7-3 Victory

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—Gordy Coleman and Frank Robinson hit home runs and Jim O'Toole pitched a four-hitter for eight innings as Cincinnati defeated the Minnesota Twins Tuesday, 7-3.

O'Toole was the first Cincinnati hurler to pitch that many innings. He allowed one run. The Twins picked up two runs in the ninth inning off Ryne Duren.

Robinson connected for a two-run homer in the first inning off Camilo Pascual and the righthander gave up two more in the third, one coming on a double steal with Pete Rose scoring.

Coleman hit his home run in the sixth and the final Cincinnati run came in the eighth inning on two singles, a double and a twin error.

O'Toole was credited with the victory with Pascual absorbing the loss.

Bosox Purchase Lenny Green

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (UPI)—The Boston Red Sox announced Tuesday that they have purchased the contract of outfielder Lenny Green from Rochester of the International League.

Green, who played for Los Angeles and Baltimore in 1964 before being sold to Rochester, has paced the Bosox in batting this spring with a .395 mark. He also leads the club in stolen bases with three and is second in hits and runs.

Manager Billy Herman, in making the announcement, said "He's worked real hard down here and I'm glad to have him on the team."

The purchase price was not disclosed.

Braves Murder Kansas City, 12-5

BRADENTON, Fla. (UPI)—The Milwaukee Braves tagged bonus pitcher Johnny Odom for 10 hits and eight runs in the first four innings Tuesday and went on to defeat the Kansas City Athletics, 12-5.

Righthander Bob Sadowski checked the A's on five hits and two runs in seven innings to pick up the win. Knuckleballing Bob Tiefenauer finished for the Braves, allowing five hits and three runs in his stint.

The hitting for the Braves was well distributed as seven players batted in runs while Eddie Mathews, Felipe Alou, Gene Oliver, and Tom Aaron each collected a pair of hits. Ed Charles and rookie catcher Rene Lacheman homered for Kansas City.

The Athletics announced that they had assigned the contracts of three first-year draftees outright to Burlington of the Midwest League. The players were outfielders Leo Montgomery and Charles Robinson and infielder Steve Tompkins.

Giants Down Red Sox, 6-1

Cepeda Makes First Appearance

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Bob Hendley, Bob Shaw and Frank Linzy combined to hurl a seven-hit, 6-1, shutout for the San Francisco Giants against the Boston Red Sox Tuesday.

Hendley went the first seven innings and scattered four hits and Shaw and Linzy split the remaining two frames. Shaw yielded one hit, Linzy two.

Earl Wilson, betrayed by his defense, was charged with the loss. Wilson went five innings, surrendered all the runs and five of San Francisco's six hits.

Tony Conigliaro bagged three of Boston's hits and second baseman Hal Lanier singled twice for San Francisco.

Orlando Cepeda, the Giants' leading hitter at .304 last year who is recovering slowly from a winter knee operation, made his first exhibition appearance of the spring and struck out.

The Giants clinched their 11th victory in the last 12 meetings with Boston on the strength of a four-run fifth inning that saw Hendley, Matty Alou, Lanier and McCovey single off Wilson.

Only three Red Sox got beyond first base.

Willie Stargell's Home Runs Help Pirates Beat Nats

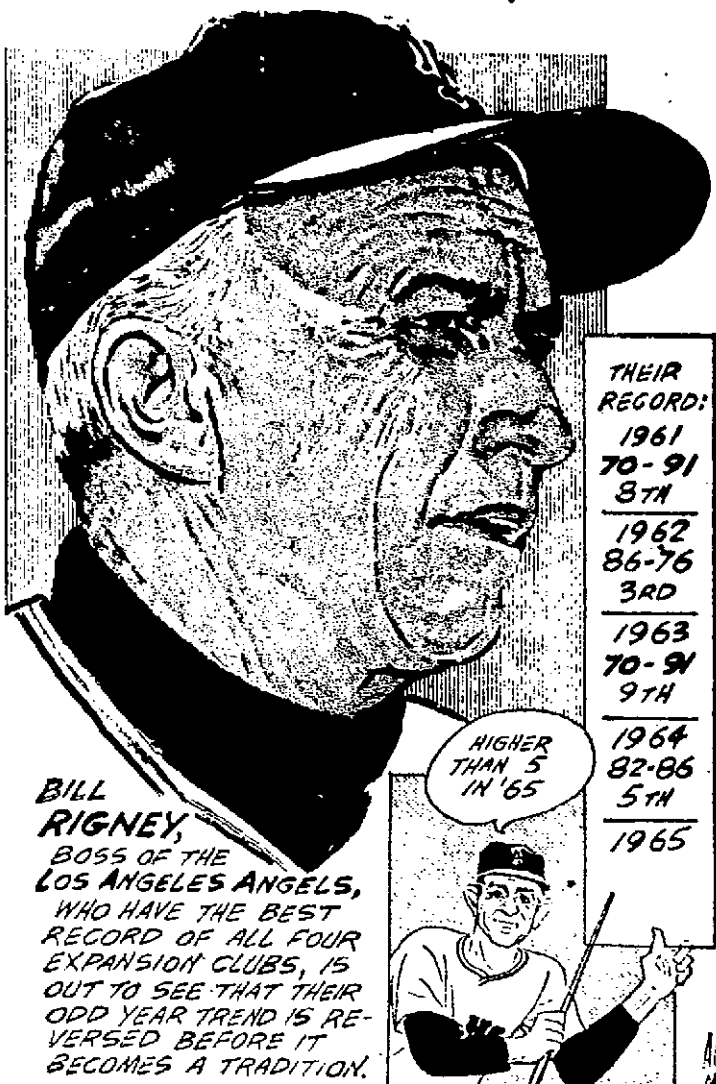

FT. MYERS, Fla. (UPI)—Willie Stargell hit a pair of home runs, one a grand slam, and drove in six runs as Pittsburgh beat Washington, 12-7, Tuesday.

Bob Bailey drove in two more Pirate runs with a triple. Bob Chance hit a home run off Vernon Law for the Senators, who scored four runs on six hits in the ninth inning against southpaw Frank Bork.

Stengel Is Undecided On Status Of Berra

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI)—Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Mets, said Tuesday he will wait at least two weeks and possibly six before deciding whether to restore Yogi Berra to the active list.

Hunt Figures In Big Payoffs

Shenny Twin $6,624 And Double $513.40

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va., March 30 (Special)—Apprentice Jockey Larry Hunt figured prominently in two big payoffs tonight at Shenandoah Downs.

Starting off the $513.40 daily double and completing a $6,624.80 twin.

Hunt began a program that was dominated by longshots when he scored with Tiger Dip, $138.20 victor in the first race. The win price was fourth highest ever paid at the night track and helped produce a daily double that just missed revenue proportions.

The young rider's win in the eighth on Doreen's Knight put the finishing touches on a 2-5-8-5 combination that produced the big payoff for two ticket holders.

Audley Farm's Fleeting War had taken a heavy toll of pool players in the fifth with a $59.00 straight win under Eddie Cape. Oscine, $5 winner in the sixth, and Epic Dancer, which paid $8.60 in the seventh rounded out the twin.

Last girl's popular victory in the second at $5.60 straight, completed the 7-5 combination in the two-way bet.

Yankees Sell Stan Williams To Cleveland

Gabe Paul Admits Purchase Is Gamble

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—Right-hander Stan Williams, one-time member of the Los Angeles Dodgers, was sold Tuesday by the New York Yankees to the Cleveland Indians for an undisclosed amount of cash.

Williams was obtained by the Yankees in 1962 in a trade which sent Bill Skowron to the Dodgers. He has been erratic and wild this spring and was General Manager Ralph Houk's choice to go since the Yankees had to cut one man.

New York and Cleveland officials maintained, however, that Tuesday's sale had nothing to do with last year's trade in which the Yankees received Pedro Ramos from the Tribe.

Houk explained the sale tersely. "If those guys come through with an average year I see no reason why we can't go all the way."

Paul, general manager of Cleveland, said the purchase of Williams was a gamble. "These things are a gamble, but if you get a chance to buy a player for cash, what are you risking but cash?" Paul said. "And you might get lucky."

Williams, who has always been bothered by control problems, was a starter for the Dodgers and teamed with Don Drysdale, Sandy Koufax and Johnny Podres to form the most formidable front line staff in the majors. His best season for Los Angeles was 1960 when he won 14 and lost 10.

WON ONE GAME IN 1964

The big right-hander never had much success with the Yankees, however. In 1963 he was 9-8, and last season slipped to 1-5 with only 82 innings of work and an earned run average of 3.84.

The departure of Williams still leaves the Yankees with more than the 10 hurlers around which manager Johnny Keane expects to build his staff.

Keane, however, anticipates no problems in getting his staff down to 10 before the American League season starts.

Jo Ann Prentice, Aided By Elements, Wins Tournament

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The Ladies Professional Golf Association tour unfolded uneventfully Tuesday, splashed out to waiting cars and sped away to the Sherwood Forest Invitational in Baton Rouge, La., after calling the tournament here.

"We've got to be in Baton Rouge for a pro-am Thursday," an LPGA spokesman said as the $8,500 All-State Invitational money was distributed on second-round 36-hole scores.

Jo Ann Prentice picked up her first tourney victory and a $1,275 check won with the aid of the elements.

She led the first round Friday with a two-over-par 74 after near freezing temperatures and gusty winds sent scores soaring above par.

Saturday's play was rained out. Sunday, under cloudy skies, Miss Prentice shot a 72 for a 36-hole total of 146.

Steady rains Monday and Tuesday drowned out further play.

Kathy Whitworth took second and $1,035 with a 147. Third place and $850 went to Sandra Haynie with a 149.

STINGY HOUSTON (UPI)—Houston pitchers were stingier of the major leagues with their bases on balls in 1964. League statistics show the hurlers on the Houston Colts (now the Astros) handed out only 333 free walks in 1,428 innings. Of those, 53 were intentional. No other club in the majors had fewer than 400 walks given out by its pitchers.

LAKE LAKE, Fla.—Bob Swift, the Detroit Tiger coach who is serving his second term as a fill-in manager of a major league club, is as optimistic as Charlie Dressen might be about the chances of the 1965 Tigers.

While Dressen is recovering in a Santa Monica, Calif., hospital of a heart attack, Swift, who handled the reins of the Kansas City Athletics for a few months in 1959 as a fill-in for Harry Craft, is carrying out Charlie's plan of action and voicing a hopeful campaign for the Bengals.

Swift points out the poor records of pitchers Hank Aguirre and Phil Regan last year (both with 5-10) and says he expects them to reverse those marks. He expects Al Kaline, Norm Cash and Don Demeter to have better years and he points to the good young arms in camp and says:

"If those guys come through with an average year I see no reason why we can't go all the way."

Demeter, says Swift, now has had the experience of a year in the American League and "he should know the pitchers better. He did a good job for us last year when he hit 22 homers and on 38 occasions either drove in a tying run or the run which put us ahead."

Swift points out the windup of the club last year, a fourth-place finish, and also that in August the Tigers had the best won-lost record in the majors. "There is no reason to believe that we can't do it this year if those boys I mentioned come up with that average year," Swift adds.

The former major league catcher is most happy about the condition of the whole squad. "It's the first time I can remember," Bob says, "when we opened our exhibition season without a sore leg or a sore arm in camp."

McLain Impresses

Swift managed the Mayaguez club in Puerto Rico this winter and he had nine Tigers on the roster. He was most impressed with pitchers Denny McLain, who was 14 and 6, and Joe Sparrma, the former Ohio State footballer, who won six out of his last seven in the Caribbean.

Barber allowed two hits and struck out eight before being relieved by Hall in the eighth. Dave Gusti, right-handed Houston starter, had allowed two hits through one out in the fifth before the Orioles combined three singles, two walks and an infield error by Mike White for their runs.

Houston had taken a 1-0 lead in the first when Joe Gaines singled, stole second and scored on a single by Chuck Harrison.

Successive singles by Norm Siebern, Charley Lau and Jerry Adair tied the score in the fifth. Walks to Russ Snyder and Luis Aparicio forced in another run before Danny Coombs replaced Gusti. Adair scored when White bobbled Bog Powell's bounder. The final runs came in on a single by Brooks Robinson.

Swift points out the windup of the club last year, a fourth-place finish, and also that in August the Tigers had the best won-lost record in the majors. "There is no reason to believe that we can't do it this year if those boys I mentioned come up with that average year," Swift adds.

The former major league catcher is most happy about the condition of the whole squad. "It's the first time I can remember," Bob says, "when we opened our exhibition season without a sore leg or a sore arm in camp."

McLain Impresses

Swift managed the Mayaguez club in Puerto Rico this winter and he had nine Tigers on the roster. He was most impressed with pitchers Denny McLain, who was 14 and 6, and Joe Sparrma, the former Ohio State footballer, who won six out of his last seven in the Caribbean.

Opening lead: Ace of ♠

West's failure to capitalize on the brief advantage in timing that goes with the opening bid dealt a fatal blow to the defensive cause in today's hand.

North's one no trump bid allowed the upper limits of the bidding for that call—observe that he has 18 points, a virtual solid five card suit plus an extra ten. It may be pointed out on his behalf, however, that at an opening bid of one club he would have presented an awkward red situation if partner responded with either one spade or one diamond.

East overcalled one no trump with two hearts. South's hand was worthless defensively, and yet he could take six tricks at a spade contract. Accordingly he jumped directly to four spades in the hope of inflicting any further competition.

West was not to be denied, however, and he raised his bid to two hearts. South's partner to five hearts. N. doubted, but South wisely insisted to five spades. Here the damages would be slight, and there was too great a risk that the opposite side could fulfill their bid. Obviously East can in fact resist his losses to one diamond one club, if he is permitted to play five hearts.

West doubled five spades and opened the ace of hearts. East felt that it was extremely unlikely that his side could cash any more heart tricks, in an attempt to induce a diamond shift, he played the ace of hearts under his partner's ace. East intended to play as a suit preference bid, calling for the lead of higher ranking of the two suits.

West unfortunately was not aware of the urgent need for a quick shift in the attack and he woodenly continued with a second heart. South ruffled and led a spade and was in with the ace and later led a diamond. I'm sure my ace was played after the king of spades and the outstanding trump, dealer discarded his last diamond on the high clubs.

West should have made a diamond shift at trick 10 while he still had the ace of spades. The bidding made highly improbable that South had a second heart, and besides, if East wanted a

Apportionment Effort Dropped

Hope Of Agreement Abandoned In Final Hours Of Legislature

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—The 1965 Maryland Legislature closed up shop Tuesday night by slamming the door on bills to reapportion the House of Delegates and solve a batch of other problems.

Unsatisfied Claims Fund Beefed Up

Plan To Increase Court Fees Killed

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—The Maryland Legislature enacted Tuesday a bill designed to prevent bankruptcy of the State Unsatisfied Claims and Judgment Fund, which pays claims against uninsured motorists.

The bill sent to Gov. Tawes will allow the fund to collect a tax against insurance companies of 2 per cent of the total premiums they write in Maryland, instead of one-half per cent at present.

Will Solve Problem

It will boost the $380,000 they presently pay into the fund by an additional $1,170,000, if the maximum amount should be needed. Senate amendments to the bill, concurred in by the House, will allow the U. C. J. board to collect this tax as it may be needed throughout the year. The amendments also deleted an original requirement that the increase be passed on to policy holders by the companies as a direct tax on their policies.

John H. Calhoun, manager of the U. C. J. Fund, said "this will solve the immediate problem of the fund," which had been facing bankruptcy by September. It has a reserve deficit of $3.5 million in unpaid claims.

Calhoun said he also would like to see enacted a one-year bill which would levy an additional $5 in court costs, for direct benefit of the fund, in cases involving moving traffic violations.

Hopes For Action

The Senate Judiciary Committee killed this House-passed bill earlier Tuesday, but Motor Vehicles Commissioner John R. Jewell said he hoped the action might be reconsidered before midnight adjournment.

The committee went along 7-4 with its chairman, Sen. Frederick C. Maikis Jr., D-Dorchester. He said he was for the extra costs which would have bolstered the Unsatisfied Claims and Judgment Fund only if a new plan for windshield stickers as proof of insurance was adopted.

The House killed the sticker bill Monday.

Appalachian Bill Enacted

Maryland can take advantage of programs offered under terms of the Appalachian Bill under a bill adopted by the Senate Monday.

The enabling legislation is included in House Bill 796, sponsored by the Allegheny, Garrett and Washington county delegations.

The bill authorizes the Board of Public Works to coordinate and cooperate with the federal government in implementing the Appalachian Regional Development Act of 1965.

The House on Monday adopted House Bill 275, which creates the Maryland Industrial Development Financing Authority to insure mortgage loans.

The House concurred in amendments and enacted SB 420 which authorizes a state debt of $5,000,000 for financing regional community colleges.

Similar action was taken on SB 437, which authorizes the Board of Trustees to issue revenue bonds for financing construction of living, dining and recreational facilities in colleges, and on SB 587, which authorizes a state debt of $10,000,000 toward construction of area vocational schools.

Cancer Society Opens Annual Fund Drive

120 Attend Kickoff Event

The real progress man is making against the dread disease cancer was stressed by Harry W. Rodgers III, state Cancer Crusade chairman, speaking at the kickoff dinner for the 10th annual fund drive of Allegheny County Unit, American Cancer Society, last night at Ali Ghan Shrine Club.

Mr. Rodgers cited progress of researchers in studies of living cells, the encouraging achievements in the cure and prevention of cancer of the breast and uterus, and the marked advance in treatment and study of leukemia, prime killer of children.

Today, doctors and scientists are more optimistic over the fight against cancer than ever before and the word "breakthrough" is now a word to be associated with the word "cancer," Mr. Rodgers stressed.

He asked the some 120 volunteer workers attending the dinner to let people know that 1,300,000 persons have been cured of cancer. That there were only 42,000 people killed in automobile accidents last year as compared to 295,000 who died from cancer.

Robert Garner served as toastmaster for the dinner and Dr. R. Rhett Rathbone, president of the local board of the cancer society, presided.

Also speaking were Mrs. Wilma McKay, who told of her bout with cancer from which she is now cured. Mrs. McKay told the volunteers that the worst battle she had to face "was the fear of cancer." She cited the efforts of doctors, nurses and the cancer society in her behalf. She stressed the importance of being aware of the danger signals of cancer and taking prompt action if they appear.

Bill Beem, president and Linda Bond, vice president, spoke of the Junior Board of the local unit and introduced members of the board who were present.

Ronald J. Screen, crusade chairman for Allegheny County, spoke of his hopes for a successful campaign drive with the efforts of all the volunteer workers behind him. He expressed the hope that in the near future, cancer will take its place, with polio, as a no longer dreaded disease.

Mr. Screen introduced his chairman including, Mrs. William Thompson, county residential; Mrs. Stanley Goodrich, city residential; Mrs. Thomas Staup, Garrett County; Mrs. Ralph Sell, clubs and organizations; William Taylor, special gifts; Buford Saville and J. Frederick Hill, business.

He also introduced Bruce Jamieson, assistant director of the Baltimore division of the Cancer Society and Mrs. Alice Skidmore, youth director.

21,361 Auto Tags Sold This Year At Court House

Today is the last day for automobile owners to display their blue and white Maryland tags.

Francis G. Philpot, Allegheny County tax collector, reported yesterday that another 1,146 sets were sold during the day at his office in the Court House. This brings the total sale to 21,361 or 691 sets more than the 20,670 sets sold as of March 30 a year ago.

The collector's office is open from 8:30 a. m. until 4 p. m. His office still has 2,078 sets out of an original shipment of 23,439 placed on sale late in February.

Clergymen Will Switch Pulpits

Rev. Bryce W. Shoemaker, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, and Rev. H. M. Richardson, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, will switch pulpits for midweek Lenten services in their respective churches at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

In addition to his duties as pastor of St. John's Church, Dr. Shoemaker teaches History of Western Civilization and American Government at Allegheny Community College.

Discuss Family Service Agency

Ebert and Mrs. Ross Petty, co-chairman of the counseling committee, before Mr. Perrin spoke to the youth commission last night. The organization is exploring the possibility of setting up a family service agency in this county.

ABL Again Reduces Its Work Force

L. B. Johnston, plant manager of the Allegheny Ballistics Laboratory at Rocket Center, announced a reduction in the work force at the local installation.

Mr. Johnston stated: "ABL has had to make further reductions in personnel, making a total of about 250 people either laid off or transferred to other locations since the first of the year."

"This was a result of a combination of moving the Poseidon program to the Baucus plant and other contracts being completed without any additional contracts available to begin."

Mr. Johnston said that completing contracts was mainly responsible for most of the curtailment. A meeting was held in the Navy offices in Washington, D. C. Monday in which Hercules Powder Company and Navy officials discussed the status at ABL.

Mr. Johnston said Hercules is bidding on a number of new contracts about which officials are optimistic.

Tax Credit For Preserving Buildings Voted

Groups and individuals in Maryland interested in the preservation of structures having historic or architectural value were encouraged by the enactment by the House of Delegates of an amended version of House Bill 244.

House Bill 244 was introduced in the General Assembly by Delegate Goodloe E. Byron, Frederick County Democrat.

The act is designed to regulate the granting of special tax credit based upon the restoration and preservation of structures having historic or architectural value.

HB 244 provides that any board of county commissioners or council and Mayor and City Council by resolution or ordinance may provide a tax credit as to property taxes in an amount up to 10 per cent of the owner's expenses, as indicated by properly documented receipts, of restoration and preservation of properties designated by the County Commissioners, County Council or Mayor and City Council as having historic or architectural significance.

The tax credit in any given year may be carried forward to as many as five subsequent tax years.

330 Students Will Join In Vocal Music Festival

Some 330 students, representing all eight public high schools in Allegheny County, will participate in the annual County Vocal Festival Friday at Fort Hill High School, according to LaVern J. Hahn, supervisor of music education.

Actually, the singers will be divided into four different groups each of which will sing three selections. They are the girls' glee club, boys' glee club, choir and chorus.

The group will spend all day Friday rehearsing at Fort Hill. The girls' glee club will sing the first three numbers in the concert scheduled for 8 p. m. Friday in the Fort Hill auditorium. First selection will be "The Light" by Mai Jones, directed by Miss Carol Miller, music teacher at Mt. Savage with Rhonda Grabowski of high schools, said yesterday.

The three-day symposium will be administered by the Maryland Academy of Sciences under the Army JSHS Program. Two science teachers from Allegheny County will accompany the students.

The students and the schools they attend are William A. Romine, Allegheny; Elaine Lohr, Beall; Gary Hardegan, Bruce; Carol Jean Robinette, Flinstone; Joseph F. Pratt, Fort Hill; Judy Hughes, Mt. Savage; Donna Twigg, Oldtown, and Robert R. Love, Valley.

H. Willard Burchard, teacher at Fort Hill, and Robert P. Jackson, teacher at Valley, will accompany the students and provide the transportation.

Mr. Petty said all costs for meals, lodging and insurance will be paid by the symposium. Student and teacher delegates will be housed at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

The students were chosen on the basis of general intelligence and achievement, interest in the sciences and good school citizenship.

Letters with information about the symposium have been mailed to the students and teachers, who also have been notified by the Academy of what is in store, the type of meetings and where they will be held.

Teachers who have participated in the past symposiums include Granville M. Cannon, Mt. Savage, and David E. Malone, Oldtown, in 1963; and Forrest J. Boggs, Bruce, and Gerard P. Calhoun, Beall High, in 1964.

Liquor License Forms Needed By Board Today

Holders of alcoholic beverage licenses in Allegheny County drew a sharp reminder yesterday that they will run the risk of having no license when the new license year starts May 1 if they don't submit their applications for renewals to the Allegheny County Board of Alcoholic Beverages Licenses Commissioners at the Court House today.

There now are 268 licenses in effect in Allegheny County. Only 175 had applied for renewal by yesterday, according to Mrs. Janet G. Lancaster, clerk to the liquor board. That would indicate that 93 others are in danger of having no license when the new liquor year starts May 1.

Bel Air Gives Strong Vote For Light Tax

86.5 Per Cent Favor New Levy

Voters in the Bel Air development of Election District 7 yesterday cast their ballots overwhelmingly for a lighting tax area in their community.

Matthew J. Mullaney, president of the Allegheny County Board of Election Supervisors, said last night that 154 voted for the lighting tax area and only 21 against the area. The favorable percentage was 86.5 per cent.

Mr. Mullaney said that about 250 persons were eligible to vote in yesterday's referendum and 178 did between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. yesterday. That means that 71.2 per cent voted.

Yesterday's special referendum was authorized by House Bill 254, which was passed as an emergency bill and signed into law by Governor J. Millard Tawes.

Prompt favorable action on the tax means that the Board of Allegheny County Commissioners shall levy this tax upon the property owners when the county tax levy for 1965 is set next Tuesday. House Bill 254 stipulates that the tax shall not exceed 10 cents on each $100 of assessed valuation within the described area of Bel Air.

Taxes collected under HB 254 will be used by the Citizens' Committee for electric lights along the streets, alleys and public ways of Bel Air and for other expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of the subtitle.

This act becomes effective as soon as the official canvass of yesterday's election is completed. From that time until the second Monday in January 1966, the Citizens' Committee of Bel Air will consist of Erwin H. Elbrecht, chairman; Jerome T. Ruszkowski and Robert E. Hetzel.

On the second Monday in January 1966, one member of the Citizens' Committee shall be elected for one year, another for two years and the third for three years. Each January thereafter one member shall be elected for a three-year term to fill the vacancy.

Voting yesterday was done on a voting machine installed in the basement of the residence of John W. Chapman, 145 North Bel Air Drive.

Professional Day Program Is Completed

Plans have been completed for the Professional Day program for Allegheny County public school teachers on Monday at Allegheny High School, said Jack A. Petry, supervisor of public high schools, who is in charge of the program.

He said that 62 exhibitors, the largest number ever, have entered displays in the day-long program which will begin at 9 a. m.

Elementary and secondary teachers will be given an opportunity to see the latest in textbooks, visual aids including film strips and overhead projectors, as well as physical education equipment.

During the day, consultants will meet with high school teachers and discuss subject areas. Elementary teachers will be looking over the exhibits at that time.

The high school teachers will view the exhibits while the elementary teachers are attending meetings. A guest speaker will be on the program, said Mr. Petry.

The exhibits will be shown in the school gymnasium. Invitations were sent to the Allegheny County Board of Commissioners and Mayor Earl D. Chaney and members of the council.

Similar Professional Day programs were held in 1961 and 1963, according to Mr. Petry, who said that two years ago there were 54 exhibitors.

Kaiser To Start Expansion Work After May 1

Construction of the $1 million expansion project at the Kaiser Refractories Plant near Frostburg is expected to begin soon after May 1, according to Joseph Leach, plant superintendent.

A new structure will be erected at the rear of the existing factory and will replace a portion of the old building, which will be torn down during the construction process.

Mr. Leach said the new building will house grinding and mixing equipment for use in the manufacture of refractory specialty products.

Current plans call for the completion of the building and equipment installation before the end of the year.

Damage Suit Filed In Circuit Court

Patricia Ann Kelley of Lonaconing has filed a damage suit in Allegheny County Circuit Court as a result of injuries she sustained in a two-car accident August 28, 1964 near Nave's Cross Road on U. S. Route 40.

The suit was filed against Robert Lee Cook, RD 1, Frostburg, Wagner's Rental Service and Wagner's Service Station, 300 North Mechanic Street.

A Chat Before Kickoff crusade chairman, Ronald J. Screen, left, and Dr. R. Rhett Rathbone, church workers and members of local clubs and sororities who assist the local cancer society during the year, attended.
